MOTHER'S DAY GIFT GUIDE
2018

Mom Life.

THE GOOD. THE BAD. THE LOVELY

I will be the first to say that being a mom is hard. Throughout the years, and even now and then, I catch myself thinking... "Am I a good mom? Could I have done more when they were little?" When I find myself in this place, I pause, take a deep breath, and reflect on the good that I have done. I choose to remember the positive moments. I haven't done everything right, but I find comfort in knowing that along the way when I knew better, I did better.

For those of you who have little ones, I've been there...I know you are tired, and with years of perspective, know this; I wish I would have played more and worried less about all the mess. What I wouldn't do for messy little fingerprints all over my sliding glass door. Those days are gone and the challenges have changed, but one thing remains the same, I am grateful for this family of mine. Although motherhood is challenging, it has been the biggest blessing and crowning achievement of my life.

Remember this...you are so much better and so much stronger than you think. Let go of past regrets and strive to be present with your family each day!

To my Mom, thank you for teaching me compassion for my fellow man and that I could do anything I set my mind to. To all of you women out there...whether you are "like a mom," your babies are tiny, grown or full of fur....You deserve to be celebrated. Happy Mother's Day!

I'LL ALWAYS REMEMBER

"My grandma, Maxine, is one of my favorite people. She taught me how to play piano. She is kind, beautiful and musically talented. This picture was taken in 2011. We laughed reminiscing, and she patted me on the leg and said, 'I don't know who you are, but I sure do like you.' She has Alzheimer's and is now in an assisted living home. The local paper featured her in an article about her ability to uplift the residents with her music. Alzheimer's may have stolen her memory, but her talents will live long."

MY FOUR-LEGGED PAL

"This is my memorial Living Locket® for my beloved Zero. He was such a lover and a hugger. He was also a runner! I wear my Living Locket EVERY DAY. I can touch it when I think about him and how much joy he gave us. I have the Paw Charm and the Heart Infinity Charm with an Inscriptions® Plate with his name and a heart and xoxo. We all miss you, Zero."

 ORIGAMI OWL®

Le Papier Studio was established in 2008 in an effort to satisfy Vana's creative passions while fulfilling an even higher calling, being a mom. Vana continues to be the safekeeper of a family's memory in order to help evoke the magic of that moment forever.

We are so excited to partner with Le Papier Studio, supporting a small business owner committed to many of the same core values as Origami Owl. We know these Charms will be treasured pieces to keep your little ones close.

“She’s the key that unlocked everything for all of us. She is truly the heartbeat of our family. My prayer is to be the woman my mother is. I strive to be the person my kids and grandkids can turn to when the path is uncertain, just like she did for us. I was blessed on the day I took my first breath because she was my mom.”

Sharon G.
DESIGNER

“We love to run, train, and compete together - and we love being in business together - my 16-year-old daughter is an Owlette! This photo was our seventh half-marathon in April 2017. We both achieved personal bests and Sarah won a plaque in her age group.”

"This is a picture that I keep close to my heart. It reminds me that we can get through anything as long as we are together. My daughters are my everything; they give me purpose, they are my reason for my business, they teach me every day how truly blessed I am to be their mom, and how blessed I am to be a survivor."

MY EVERYTHING

"I make up a song for each of my kids that I sing to them starting the month they are born. I sing that song over and over; it's something they remember. It soothes them when they're scared, upset, or sad. It's very near and dear to my heart and just between us. I hear people say things like 'I gave up ___ for my children...' but I choose the word 'live.' I live for their smiles, their hugs, and their kisses. I live for them."

Natasha W.
DESIGNER

MY ROLE MODEL

"I created this Locket for my 86-year-old mother for Mother's Day last year. The inner circle represents my mom - she is the core of our family. On the outside of the core, a Charm for the love of her kids and each of our birthstones. To sum it up, there's a Charm to say, 'I Love You.'"

Mary W.
SENIOR DESIGNER

MY GUARDIAN ANGEL

"In October 2013, my aunt and nan sent me an Origami Owl Living Locket® dedicated to my mom and all the things she loved. It gives me a way to keep my momma alive and to talk about her to everyone. Everyone should have the chance to help others tell their stories."
