

ABSTRAK

Folklore is an example of literature. The origins of the Silalahi Monument are an example of the Toba Batak folklore originating from Dairi Regency. The story of the Silalahi Monument has its own uniqueness. However, many do not know the Silalahi Monument. So, we revitalize this folklore. The revitalization of folklore is one way to support and preserve culture. By making this folklore script into teaching materials in junior high school. The writing of this folklore is the result of research in the form of observations and interviews with local communities and cultural figures.

Keywords: Folklore, Revitalization, Teaching Material.