

ABSTRACT

The title of this exploration is "An analysis Teacher's technique and Media in teaching speaking during Covid-19 at the second class of SMP Swasta Amalyatul Huda Medan." During the Covid-19 pandemic, online learning is one of the policies that the government has announced. The relationship between determination and teacher learning strategies is interesting. Therefore, this study focuses on the method used by teachers in carrying out getting the hang of during the Covid-19 pandemic, distance learning . This will allow you to learn optimally, effectively, and correctly. This study aims to explain teacher techniques in coaching specs during the Covid19 pandemic. This study uses a technical qualitative approach. Subjects are grade VIII English teachers . Data collection methods in this study were observation, interviews, and recording. Two learning methods are used when analyzing online instructor learning techniques that support online media. One of them is mapping the results of the method answers through the Google Classroom application are collected directly from the school and the second teaching method becomes problematic. Questions and answers via Zoom Meetings and WhatsApp groups. This study concludes that strategies for teachers to teach speaking at SMP Swasta Amalyatul Huda in Medan during the Covid-19 pandemic can be seen in terms of educational goals, educational approaches, and methods.

Keywords : analysis, teaching, speaking, covid-19.