

ABSTRACT

This research is not only aimed to fulfill the final task but also to provide participation in the development of English language education in Indonesia. The method we have used in this research is descriptive qualitative with data collected through face-to-face observations and tests via Google Classroom with junior high school students for two CAR cycles. The results showed that flashcards media were very effective in enhancing students' vocabulary.

Keywords : Enhancing, Student's Vocabulary, Flashcard Media, Google Classroom