

Yolanda Vega

Her distinctive delivery and unique on-camera style made this Brooklyn native a favorite among New Yorkers almost as soon as she hit the airwaves in February of 1990. After graduating from Hunter College in New York City with a B.A. degree in Economics, Yolanda spent several years working as an accountant. In 1986, she married New York State Trooper, Miguel A. Vega and today they live in the Albany area, where they make their home along with their daughters.

Yolanda Trivia

Beside her work as an accountant at a bagel company, one of Yolanda's other former jobs was as a clerk at a dry cleaning store.

Personal Interest Profile

Meal: Lobster, Crab, Clams & Shrimp

Vacation: Caribbean Islands

Movie: Imitation of Life, Avatar

Sport: Baseball - Yankees!

Actor: Denzel Washington

Musician: Marc Anthony & Beyoncé

TV Show: Two and a Half Men, Criminal Minds

Earliest Influence: Close-knit, loving family

Author: James Patterson

Greatest Achievement: Birth of her two daughters

Hobbies: Bowling, dancing, working out

