

Fragment -

Score

of a song that hummed by a woman whose husband Loki, bound by the entrails of their son, writhes in pain and curses her while she slowly empties, into a bottomless pit, the bowl full of venom from the mouth of the serpent that has been placed to forever drip its venom onto Loki's face, and does so until the woman returns to collect in the bowl the venom once more.
