

Luke McGinnis

Singer/Songwriter/Arranger/Musician

404-405-5684 (cell)
lmcginnis@berklee.net
20 Hemenway St Apt #40
Boston, MA 02115

Instruments played:

Piano, Bass, Drumset, Guitar, Percussion, Mandolin

Current activities and experience:

- Attending Berklee College of Music with a voice principal and major in Professional Music.
- Scholarship award winner of the Berklee 2010 Scholarship Tour
- President of the Berklee Student Government Association
- Founder and director of and arranger for the Berklee Y Chromotones
- Play, sing and write for a folk-rock band, King Richard's Sunday Best
- Work as a recording engineer for recital preparation classes at Berklee
- Teach private music lessons in guitar, bass, and music theory
- Play Mingus, the Berklee College of Music mascot
- Volunteer at the Boston Children's Hospital

Previous experiences

- Performed at the opening of the New World of Coca-Cola in Atlanta, Georgia
- Participant in Georgia All-State Choir
- Extensive performance experience in music venues across the country
- Alumnus of Harmony: Atlanta's International Youth Chorus
Tenor section leader, accompanist (percussion, piano and guitar) and mentor to younger members
- Sales Associate at Earthshaking Music, www.earthshakingmusic.com
- Four years of experience serving as assistant engineer at Earthshaking Studios
- Provide music for my church, Atlanta Mennonite Fellowship
- Arranged choral music for the Newton Family Singers
- Lead singer of the contemporary worship band at St. Anthony Shrine and Ministry Center

Assets:

- I am very comfortable interacting with an audience and the public
- Proficient in Finale, Microsoft Office Suite, Garage Band, Cubase
- I take performances very seriously and work very hard outside of rehearsals
- I speak Spanish proficiently

References:

- Michael Wartofsky (mwartofsky@berklee.edu)
- Josh Rosen (jrosen@berklee.edu)
- Amy Lieberman (alieberman@berklee.edu)