

Intermediate Dog Behavior and Handling

Registration form - 2010

Best Friends
ANIMAL SOCIETY

Learn how to help dogs in shelters, rescues and foster homes become more adoptable. In this intermediate-level workshop, participants will be shown practical application of positive training techniques. Topics include learning theory, the value of your relationship skills, and common dog behavior issues. This workshop is open to anyone who wants to help more dogs go home and successfully stay there.

Prerequisite: Introduction to Understanding Dogs or equivalent experience. Instructor must approve skipping prerequisite.

Time & Place

Kanab is in the Mountain Time Zone, one hour later than Las Vegas. The workshop takes place at the Sanctuary, starting at 9 a.m. the first morning at Angel Village.

Fee, as a donation

The fee for the workshop (minus the cost of meals and materials) is counted as a tax-deductible donation. For this workshop, the non-deductible amount is $50. (We provide 4 meals and materials.) The workshop fee does not include housing or transportation.

Cancellation Policy

Best Friends workshops are in great demand; we expect them to fill quickly and have waiting lists. If you need to cancel and would like your registration fee or deposit refunded we must be notified no later than 45 days prior to the start of the workshop so that arrangements can be made for a replacement to attend. With 45 days notice, fees and deposits can be transferred to a later date or another workshop if available, or refunded. Fees and deposits paid with a credit card will be refunded as a chargeback to the credit card; those paid with checks will be issued a check in return.

Cancellations with less than 45 days notice will receive a 50% refund of the total workshop fee.
