

STRATEGIC MANAGEMENT
March 7, 2011

Summary

1. Participants introduced themselves and shared their hopes for the outcome of Strategic Planning.
2. There was good energy from all participants!
3. Participants did not establish the goals and objectives for the district or have anything other in mind.
4. The structure and overall process they intend to follow was discussed.
5. Participants started the process and discussed how the planning will be done.
6. A large group of people will be involved in the Strategic Planning process.
7. The history of the participants experience in the DMUSD was valued.