I Current Participation in the DMUSD hot lunch program.

As of February 1, 2011, the total enrollment at the DMUSD is 4352 students from approximately 3168 families. The table and graph below show what fraction of these students subscribe to the hot lunch program.

Students participating in the hot lunch program at the DMUSD			% of the total enrollment of 4352 students
Number of students paying for their lunch	571		13.1
Number of students receiving a free or reduced price lunch	179		4.1
Total number of students on the hot lunch program	750		17.2
Number of students NOT on the lunch program	3602		82.8

II Participation in this survey.

The survey was conducted entirely online. Announcements of the survey were posted on the DMUSD website, the website of each school in the district, in e-Blasts, and in an all-district all call. Leaflets with the survey websites were left at the front desk at each school. The survey was available in English and in Spanish.

Each family was requested to submit only one survey, and the computer program which collected the results did not accept more than one entry from any one computer. There are approximately 3168 families with students enrolled in the DMUSD, and the total number of surveys returned was 1039. Therefore, the response rate was 33%.

Of the 1039 families who turned in their surveys, 546 families (53%) subscribe to the lunch program and 493 (47%) do not. Of the 546 respondents who are on the lunch program, 12 receive a free or reduced lunch. Assuming that each of these three groups of families have an equal average number of children presently enrolled in the district, the distribution of the survey participants is as follows:

Figure 2

III Quick summary of key findings

1. Families who purchase lunch

There were two dominant reasons these 546 families purchase lunch:

- the children like the food served for lunch (307, 55%)
- the parents have no time to prepare lunch in the morning (239, 43%).

Other factors in the families' decision to purchase lunch were to provide their children with variety or an occasional treat (51, 9%), their own convenience (29, 5%) and the nutritional adequacy of the lunch (29, 5%).

167 (29%) of the families who purchase lunch are satisfied with it, while 400 (71%) are not. The families who are not satisfied with the lunch were asked to provide reasons for their dissatisfaction in the free response section. Their answers were categorized and quoted in the Appendix to this document.

The three main reasons for dissatisfaction with lunch were found to be

- the failure of the lunch to meet their nutritional requirements (215, 52%).
- the lack of appeal of the food served (94, 23%)
- the price of the lunches (80, 19%)

241 families who purchase lunch answered Question #7 "Why don't you purchase school lunch?". It is assumed that they interpreted the question as asking "Why don't you purchase school lunch more frequently?". The three most popular reasons were that¹

- they felt it is nutritionally inadequate (143, 59%).
- the lunch costs too much (127, 52%)
- their children did not like the food served for lunch (96, 40%)

2. Families who do not purchase lunch

The top three reason families listed for not purchasing lunch were that

- they felt it is nutritionally inadequate (350, 71%).
- their children do not like the food served for lunch (187, 38%)
- the lunch costs too much (179, 36%)

¹ The reasons for not purchasing lunch appear as a single block on the survey results for the families who purchase lunch and those who don't. Because the reasons differ among these two groups of families, they are presented separately here.

3. What features of a lunch families consider important

The features found important or very important by the largest number of respondents were:

- Meals that include whole grains, vegetables, and fruits (995, 96%)
- Meals that do not include artificial colors, artificial flavors, preservatives, high fructose corn syrup, partially hydrogenated oils and hidden MSG. (947, 91%)
- Fresh whole, unprocessed foods that are prepared on the same day. (933, 90%)

4. Milk requirements.

- 706 (68%) of the families felt it was important or very important to specify organic/hormone-free milk
- 602 (58%) of the families felt it was important or very important to specify plain or flavored milk when ordering
- 260 (25%) of the families felt it was important or very important to have a non-dairy milk substitute available.

5. How much families are willing to spend on a food lunch that meets their requirements.

The answers of the 928 families who provided a numerical answer to this question fell into the following categories:

- Between $4.25 and $4.75 (384, 41%)
- Between $4.75 and $5.25 (262, 28%)
- Between $5.25 and $5.75 (155, 17%)
- Below $4.25 (114, 12%)
- Above $5.75 (14, 1%)

6. Volume of current versus projected lunch purchases

Collectively, the respondents to the survey currently order lunch about 1116 times a week. This number was obtained by multiplying the number of families who order lunch x times a week by x and adding up all the values for $x=1, 2, 3, 4, 5$ (see Question 4 in the Appendix). If the respondents' nutritional, taste, and cost requirements are satisfied, they expect to order lunch 2950 times a week (obtained from Question 12 in the Appendix).

V Appendix: unedited free responses, arranged by topic

Remarks on the numbering and tabulation system.

- For each question, the number in front of the quote in the form “117.”, for example, means that this quote appeared as number 117 under the free responses for that question in the survey results on zoomerang.com.
- If there is a quote numbered “13.14.”, for example, under the heading of Question 6, Section A, then this quote appeared as an answer to Question 13, but deals with a topic that is discussed in Question 6.
- An “S” in front of a number means that the quote was taken from the Spanish language survey. The numbering system described above applies.
- If a free response did not add anything new to the answer of a given question or did not relate to the topics addressed in other questions, it was omitted from this report.

Here, we are not credited for the lunches not taken due to illness or emergency and have to order 2 weeks in advance and the price is close or more than other commercial places like McDonald. If other districts in San Diego can do it, why not DMUSD?"
173. "For the price it is charged, I would expect higher quality hot lunch and kids would actually sit down and eat instead of throw most of their lunch away."
174. "Too expensive."
176. "Overpriced..."
177. "Minus thing is the lunch is kind of expensive comparing with other school districts."

259. "I think it's not worth the price."

Since I don't see what the portion sizes are and I don't get any left-overs back in his lunch box, I have no idea how much he is actually eating. He usually comes home from school VERY hungry, even on early dismissal days when he would have eaten within the past hour or so. I also have to pay for milk twice. I signed up for milk before he chose to start eating hot lunch, but milk comes with the hot lunch."
271. "...And the cost is relatively high"
280. "it costs a lot and I don't think the value is there."

314. "I think the lunch itself is OK. But it is just way to expensive. It is more than double over other school district, such as Mira Mesa and Poway. And lot higher than the Solana Beach School District as well. We moved from Solana Beach School District, their lunch is equally good or better than DMUSD, but is cheaper."
316. "Yes, they're good, but the price is a little high."

It seems like Food Services is being run as a business -- if it really takes $4.25 to break even, then somebody needs to go in there and start item[i]zing expenses line by line because that seems ridiculous. And if Food Services is making a profit at the expense of the kids/families, that just seems wrong."

392. "...cost is a little high so limited my daughter to four lunches per month."

E. Don't like the ordering system/logistics of lunch distribution (30 responses)

19. "If the child is sick, the current school lunch system doesn't allow pickup of the lunch which hurts for two reasons a) the child was really looking forward to the lunch and can still eat at home but cannot because pickup is not allowed. b)the cost is too high for a missed lunch. I really don't understand how it hurts the school if the meal is picked up - one cannot plan for sick days so it should be allowed. Can we have a similar system that caters lunch services for Poway School District over here?"

21. "small portions (4 chicken "balls"!), same options over and over, sometimes they run out of food but the parents aren't automatically given a credit. I'd rather we buy punchcards and if the kids want hot lunch that day they get their card punched, instead of pre-ordering."

211. "Have an option where they don't have to purchase a whole lunch- ie hummus and pita, fruit salad, salad, breadsticks."

212. "It would be nice to be able to purchase just the hot entree. I could pack juice/milk and veg/fruit that is to my child's preference but he could still enjoy a hot meal also. Our kids are wasting too much food."

213. "peanut free and fresh fruit no juice please"

214. "First of all vegetarian meals are available only on tuesdays. secondly, sugar contents is very high in desserts. food such as Powdered donuts and high corn syrup should not be included in child's lunch menu."

216. "sandwich bar. my friends school in boston offers a sandwich bar for the kids to make their own PBJ or turkey sandwiches. huge hit! they also have a yogurt bar, a bagel bar, and they offer pizza every single day. they have little kiosk manned by volunteers with these items and the kids LOVE to pick their lunch. supper easy for moms bc no matter what, your kid is going to find something fun to eat. pizza day, hotdog day, popsicle day...those were always fun when i was little. I can't imagine pizza as any less healthy than the chicken nuggets or the egg/bean burrito that replaced it. middle school has pizza everyday???? and yummy breadsticks from little caesars. they offer a lot better options for only .25 cents more. i would pay .25 cents every single day if we had those options!!!”

220. “sometimes, my child only wants to order the school lunch for the candy or dessert in it. So when we attend the children's lunch and see them throw away the food and only eat the lunch, it makes us a bit upset. I vote for no dessert or have fruit instead. I liked the yogurt idea or yogurt bar. The need to reduce processed and fatty foods is important as obesity continues to become more and more a problem. Let's promote healthy eating, even if it reduces menu choices. It's difficult to find a balance between tasty foods and good sellers however if continued efforts prevail then we can set a precedent and the kids will only be winners from it. thanks!”

222. “-Better variety with introduction of some new items over the course of time. -Better value - Healthier side dishes”

225. “More fresh fruit (apples & oranges).”

226. “Cheese and crackers, turkey sandwich, ham sandwich, whole wheat pasta with olive oil or red sauce. Whole wheat bagel with cream cheese.”

230. “...I don't like that they can choose chocolate milk either...”

231. “Homemade soups in the winter season.”

232. “Again, I beleive that the choices should be creatively healthy (maybe theme-based), fun to eat, and visually appealing (as much as is possible).”

233. “MORE MENU AND BETTER TASTE”

236. “more choices for the side dishes (kids say always the same choices, different choices for drinks (including water).”

242. “Please try to provide fresh fruit ...”

248. “...Please add to the variety of fruits and vegetables available.”

249. “More fruit and vegetable choices”

251. “option between 2 entrees maybe a meat dish and non meat dish?”

252. “How about food you.know they like pizza, spegetti, ravioli, chicken nuggets, grill cheese, etc”

253. “My daughter does not drink milk. We would like lunches without milk to be available at a lower price.”

257. “More variety would be nice. A lot of lunches involve bread chicked of some sort.”

B. Foods parents do NOT want to see offered (14 responses)

36. "Not serve fry foods"
52. "If you can provide lunches that are made of non-processed foods and reduce or eliminate fried & high saturated fats from the menu that would be great!"
56. "less Chinese as these are ones we never order"
71. "...I would prefer that flavored milk was not an option..."
83. "No pizza, chicken nuggets, hot dogs or hamburgers"
111. "NO CHOCOLATE MILK as an option--it's ALL SUGAR..."
114. "less pizzas, sometimes food is soggy, sometimes the food isn't filling enough"
115. "Skip the flavored milk altogether :-)"
137. "Please don't offer chocolate milk. If a child won't drink regular milk, their parents can offer chocolate milk at home without tempting my child. That is one reason I don't order more meals."
174. "Let's get ride of weird terriaki orange chicken, funky meals the kids can't even pronounce and get with the times. For goodness sake, you can get a better meal from Subway or Vons...what is with the high price?"
182. "My kid's previous school provided organic lunch, but actually that was not real organic food, just named organic, but the menu was kind of junk food, e.g. hot dog, pizza, burger, chicken nugget, etc... No one wants to get just named organic lunch."
229. "Less processed foods, no fried foods, more nutritious desserts or no dessert"
242. "...keep high sugar drinks out."
245. "No Pizza, who-knows-what chicken and beef patties, no donuts or other packed snacks, no fries, no fas[t] food type"

C. What parents say kids will eat (8 responses)

4. "I have learned that children will often not eat fruit that is presented whole. Cut it into pieces and they gobble it up."
12. "Perhaps the kids will be more likely to eat the fruits and veggies if they are GIVEN to the kids with each meal (rather than let them decide whether to take it or not)."
13. "More chicken nuggets on the menu. Smoothies? Bestter or at least different choices"
61. "Kids adore fresh fruit, yet it sounds like there isn't much offered at school. It seems like an easy way to improve the nutritional quality of the school lunches. And for heavens sake, stop offering crackers as a side dish!!! Goldfish are junk -- something to be eaten as a treat, not as apart of a balanced meal. That's absurd. They offer zero nutritional value. Just empty calories. I'd rather see three different fruit choices -- maybe one fresh, local option (apples in fall, berries in spring), one fresh always-available option (grapes, bananas), and one shelf-stable option (no-sugar-added applesauce, dried mangoes, raisin, pineapple canned in juice). If regulations require you to offer veggies, how about raw veggie sticks with or without dips, beans, baked potatoes, sweet potatoes. If the main dish doesn't include a grain, then a grain should also be offered as a side. But please, make it a nutritious whole grain. Brown rice, 100% whole wheat bread, even popcorn!"

66. " They love subway sandwiches"

92. "As a kindergartner and first grader she wanted hot lunch. This year (2 grade) she said it did not matter what sort of lunch she got."

111. "I have 2 children at 2 different schools, Sage-K and Del Mar Hills-6th. Sushi, pasta, sub sandwiches, ravioli, low-sodium soups with bread on the side, salad with grilled chicken (low fat dressing), ...grilled chicken patty sandwiches, salmon burgers, vegetarian pizza not loaded with cheese and grease--these are items that are healthy and tasty and my kids will eat."

128. "...My 1st grade daughter is very picky when it comes to food, but she does loves organic spinach lasagna from Jimbo. It is tasty and nutritious. I think most kids would like it."

D. What kids say they will eat. (10 responses)

1. "she would like to have more choices for lunch."

2. "My child said she'd definitely eat hot dogs and pizza. If there are natural/organic versions of these, that would be great."

19. "My son suggests fresh fruit salad and soy or rice milk :-)"

33. " from kids: bigger napkin, choice of side dishes, bigger entree, choice of chocolate or regular milk, use recyclable or reusable trays"

46. My child says that sometimes the hot food is cold and the cold food is warm. She also suggests that there be more "chicken or beef" than rice in the bowls."

50. " My son says he likes all the chicken dishes. Doesn't like the pizza bagels. Likes pizza, but not the pizza provided. He wants more cheese/toppings. He would like mandarin oranges added to the menu."

125. "...my son has asked me if jamie oliver's food nation could visit sage canyon so that they would not serve junk anymore. out of the mouths of babes!"

151. "her comment is that there is chicken in the lunches very frequently. maybe more variety."

206. "My son would like more vegetarian selections (no brussel sprouts:))."

217. "My kids love honey mustard and onion pretzels. That's what they are asking for."

E. Logistics: ordering, distribution of food, etc. (11 responses)

6. "While improving the quality of the lunch is a great step, another way to have children eat well and not waste food is to have recess before lunch. They will also enter into the classroom with better attention and focus. Many scientific studies support this."
8. "To be able to buy lunch items during lunch if child did not bring lunch that day."
9. "My child would like more careful monitoring of the lunch line - sometimes kids who didn't buy lunch sneak through the line and so they run out of lunches for those who paid!"
24. "I have never lived in a school district that you could not send $ for same day school lunch ordering. I can't imagine why it has to be ordered a month in advance."
26. "Need to be able to order on the same day."
32. " (1) Would like ability to order and pay on-line (2) Would like email reminder of when it is time to order. School does not give me menu/notice so I am often late ordering (3) More variety of items. (4) Ability to see on-line what child had such as Poway district has."
41. " I wish lunch could be delivered to their classroom, especially for lower grade students."
43. "The lunch itself is not a problem, the transaction charges when ordering online is our concern. These charges should not be there; it should be standard practice in this district as it is in other school districts. The paper/check method is antiquated, and the order cutoff date is also inconvenient."
47. " Last year, my children occasionally got hot lunches. A complaint I heard many times, other than they didn't like the food, was that the lines were long and often times the food items were substituted."
48. "If we cannot open cafeteria kitchens at our children's schools, and food cannot be prepared onsite (meaning it's fresh and warm), then please provide other resources and tools our kids can use to bring lunches from home that are nutritious, fresh, and warm when they need to be. For example, kids should have a fridge in their classrooms or lunch area where they can store homemade items that need to stay cold. Or, a microwave to warm up items that should be warmer. Lunches are placed on the ground and sometimes are exposed to the hot, hot sun for hours before a child gets to eat it. I have seen this throughout Torrey Hills Elem. and it saddens me that if a child brought yogurt or fresh fruit, it may not be appealing after his/her lunch has been exposed to sun for a number of hours. Children end up throwing away a lot because, by the time they can eat it, it is no longer appetizing. If the lunch program does not improve, I would love to have the option of sending my child with items leftover from our dinner, but my child would need to store it in a fridge or heat it up and this is not possible. Think of a workplace, we have areas where employees can prep their food at lunchtime. You think this is not possible but both my children attended a Montessori and they were able to warm up their own meals at lunchtime."
9. 32 "It would be great if lunch could be purchased same-day, not just pre-paid. Sometimes we need an emergency option!!"

63. "UNBELIEVABLE that online and credit card ordering is still not implemented. Menus do not come out with enough lead-time before first payment is due. Have a contest for kids to design a month of their favorite, most healthy lunches."

80. "I wish that the kids would get the whole lunch and that someone wld be around to make sure they eat it! TOO RUSHED to get to recess/free-time."

88. "The younger kids need to be reminded to pick up the sides and the drinks especially if it is being served fr a different line or place."

89. "Other schools have a debit system that parents can pay into and students/parents can use a pin # to pay for the lunches they want. It would be ideal for students to be able to choose that morning to sign up for lunch that day or even just a week in advance. Part of the benefit of buying school lunch is the convenience on those certain busy days where preparing at home is difficult. Just a "wishlist" request!"

93. "We should get credit if we miss the lunch we have already paid due to sick or other reasons."

94. "Offer same day payment"

101. "If the kids could chose what they will eat and only pay for the food that they would actually eat. As a parent I would like to see lunch item being sold by item and lowering the cost of the school lunch."

108. "dont make them take food they just turn around and throw way. Make it more like the high school where they are offered but not forced. Plus high school has Little Ceasar's pizza for their combo lunches "

117. "the cost for online ordering is way too high! Check into mylucnchmoney.com, much better system!"

127. "Lunch time is too short - only 15 minutes. It is too short even for an adult."

132."an email needs to be sent out to remind parents when the next payment is due."

134."Make ordering easier and quit increasing the price so much every year."

140. "Allow hot-lunch kids the ability to pick a seat with their peers, THEN get their lunch. (Having a friend hold their seat doesn't work; it gives the friend too much 'power')"

141. "Would be nice to be able to have a lunch account to draw from rather than writing a check every month or week. FYI, I do like getting the email confirmation so that I know my order was received."

142. "Some lunch items are not available at the second lunch period."

149. "I don't like having to order so far in advance. A week wouldn't be too bad, but the system in use last year was not practical for me. I don't use school lunch this year because I have two kids eating and $8.50 a day times five is $42.50 a week. That's 'way out of my league! For that amount, I can feed my two elementary children and my junior high child a good lunch with freshly cut fruits and vegetables and a sandwich on whole grain bread.”

52. “My child does not have enough time to eat his lunch. I'm concerned about purchasing a hot lunch as it would make it even more difficult for him to finish. At least with the lunch I provide him the leftovers come home and I can see how much he has eaten and he can eat the rest when I pick him up from school. I would imagine that the hot lunch items would be wasted/thrown away a lot of the time.”

160. “Reminder emails to sign up in advance would help tremendously! Busy lives, hard to remember to sign up so far in advance. ...”

164. “More flexibility with the ordering process, ability to change orders due to absence, field trips etc. (time to order ahead is way to long currently)”

176. “Give 30 minutes to eat the lunch. Covered seating for all children will be useful when the lunch line is too long.”

194. “The lunch system needs improvement - right now most of the kids that don't have hot lunch go through one gate at once and it is uncontrollable and the kids that have hot lunch have to try to go in at the same time. It would be better if some of the kids go in at an earlier time. Also, it would help if there are two supervisors with hand sanitizer per three grade levels (instead of one for all six grades).”

218. “Need to have tables to sit at and eat. He does not like having to taking one of everything and then waste the food. There should be a way to take home food not eaten. He feels rushed to eat lunch and does not always get to finish.”

235. “The hot lunches are served pretty late. It would be nice if they were ready for the kids as soon as lunch begins.”

236. “...I would like to see on-line/credit card ordering without such high pre-transaction fees.”

234. “if possible..include a picture or better description of the food item so my child can remember if she liked it the first time or if she wants to try it now. She always forgets the difference between a pizza bagel, pizza bread, new york style pizza, pizza quesadilla etc. TOO CONFUSING!!!! The "hot dog" choices are even worse...turkey dog, chicken dog, mini dog, bagel dog etc...”

250. “online ordering would be much easier but the fees are ridiculous”

9. 116. “Supervision is needed to insure that students take all components to make a balanced meal (especially with the young children). I witnessed first graders going through the hot food line and taking only a doughnut!”

F. Find a different vendor for providing lunches (20 responses)

i. Ki's

3. "I don't have any specific ideas, but I know Ki's restaurant in Cardiff makes school lunches that meet many of the standards that most people probably are looking for: organic, local, healthful & fresh"
7. "Try out the Ki's children lunch menu and copy their standards of quality."
75. " Use Ki's Lunch Program"
86. " Del Mar Pines had contracted a company to bring in lunches for their students and the lunches were amazing! Things like pasta with ground turkey sauce and garlic bread, fresh tuna sandwiches, and pizza Fridays, were provided. Why can't our school do something like this? I would buy lunch a lot more often. I would rather buy them a healthy hot lunch vs. a sack lunch from home." [Del Mar Pines uses Ki's]
7. 37 "Ki's Lunch Program would be a wonder addition - Santa Fe Christian uses their services and they are wonderful and healthy"
148. "I know people who have the Ki's school lunch program and they love it. I would definitely consider that."
158. "KI's in Encinitas has a school lunch program...Highly recommend it. High quality /low fat organic food."
221. "i have used Kis in the past. it was awesome!! i really liked choices of smoothies. and they always had a vegetable bar... even hot soups would be good or a nice pasta or rice dish...or a grilled chicken please please please do something!! We live in a nice area. Both my neices in AZ and San Fran they are not allowed any sugar for lunch, no dessert, no kids bringing in tons of sugar for holiday parties and birthdays. There is so much at our school. i will eventually have 4 kids coming to school at del mar heights. We can do better!!"

ii Subway

15. "Consider day subway or other options"
34. " 1 Subway sandwich is $2.50 and it is more nutritious than school lunch. School lunches are too expensive, but the quality is not satisfied."

iii Other suggestions to find an outside vendor

11. "Overhead FUN banners telling the kids how many servings of each they need in a day-so they can think about their choice. Working with local kitchens to help facilitate fresher ingredients, update the school kitchen resources so they are not just reheating frozen foods."
64. " use a fair and open process to let private providers to bid for the service"

8.14 "Have you ever thought of having a day where a pizza company sends in pizza for lunch- I know people complain about things not being healthy but doing that once a month would thrill my children. How about a subway day???"

77. " seek other campus catering companies in the area. Other schools not in DMUSD are happy with the food service they receive"

96. "Contract with local restaurants to make packaged lunches for a small fee and pay a courier to deliver them!"

139. "...Offer Dominoes or Papa John's once a week like the Solana Beach School District."

198. "when my daughter attended preschool, the school lunch catered through Metro Catering for $5 a meal was delicious and nutritious and only needed to be ordered a week in advance. I'm sure the price could go down if there were more orders."

207. "I know that Jimbos Naturally would be willing to work with us and provide healthy lunches that meet all the above standards for $5 per child. I'd love to help any way I can to make these changes happen..."

237. "It would be helpful to contact outside vendors"

260. "Get Revolution Foods to supply food for DMUSD lunches. They are already at seven other schools in San Diego -- they have sustainable and organic food. Poway School District has a buffet salad bar, bigger portions and healthy food. Why can't we have that?"

G. Have a look at what these school districts are doing (6 responses)

16. <http://www.powayusd.com/Nutrition/prices.shtml> Poway Unified School District offers very good lunch services in a very affordable range. I think something similar should be implemented here.

23. "here is the link to the school lunches at PS 87 in New York City..the food was excellent, healthy and reasonably priced. Just click on PS 87 wellness lunch menu

31. " Solana Highlands Elementary have a GREAT lunch program. They get 2 choices, sometimes "breakfast" for lunch. Water or juice would be a great option because my youngest can't drink milk. I'm sure other children cannot, as well."

159. "Check with High Tech High - they have an outside caterer that provides yummy and healthy foods that the kids like. That's what I've heard."

243. "Look at the lunch program provided by the Solana Beach School district. They include many healthy choices, salad bar etc."

260. "...Poway School District has a buffet salad bar, bigger portions and healthy food. Why can't we have that?"

H. Gather input from kids directly. (7 responses)

63. "...Have a contest for kids to design a month of their favorite, most healthy lunches."
67. "I would love for the kids to somehow be more involved in menu planning, gardening, or other aspects of food preparation or serving. Probably not that realistic but I dream of my kids going to a school like that."
11. 42 "I know that it costs money to prepare and present good lunches. However, why not create a Parent Nutrition Council to review costs and provide input. It would only have to meet 4 times per year and could include a rep from each school site with an alternate parent for back-up. Students should also be on the Nutrition Council, which I believe some districts have in place. Thank you!"
- 122." How about including student ideas and incorporating students in the cooking and planning?"
165. Survey children what kind of vegetable they like. For example, many children are not against cucumbers, cauliflowers, etc. Leaved vegetables can be minced and mix-cooked with meats or eggs."
190. "Find out what the children like. Survey them."
228. "Taste-testing the food with kids -- including items that are historically popular in home-packed lunches (yogurts, fruits, etc.)"

I. Portion size (6 responses)

21. "larger portions for boys in the upper grades."
26. "Need to have a bigger portion size. "
- 9.96 "Portion is a bit on the small size - kids tell me"
110. "The children want more food. They are upper grades and are still hungry. Maybe have a larger lunch order for older kids."
154. "Portion sizes should be considered when providing lunches. It doesn't seem reasonable that the same portion size that is provided for a 5-year-old child would satisfy a 12-year-old child. When my eldest was in 6th grade, there was simply not enough food for him."
227. "Smaller portions for the lower grades, thinking about calories when putting together a meal."

I. People happy about the fact that this survey is being conducted (14 responses)

22. "Thank you for doing this. I know there are limitations in the DMUSD schools that make preparing healthy, fresh foods difficult. I appreciate that you all are looking into creative ways to change the current offerings."
28. "I am so glad you are asking for feedback from parents. I hope you can make lots of changes to the current lunch program."

70. "Just doing this survey is a wonderful start-- healthy lunch food is so important. Thanks so much!"

112. "I love that parents are involved and trying to get better meals for our kids. However, given budget constraints in our district, I don't know that this will be fiscally possible without charging parents A LOT more per lunch which would greatly deter me from purchasing the lunch."

129. "as stated above, it looks like whomever wrote the survey knows exactly what is needed. that is what needs to happen!"

160. "...Thank you for the survey."

161. "I like the idea of this survey for the reminder that nutrition is always important. There is no need for raw sugar like candy, etc. at school, because if it's available kids will choose it over better options. Let's resist the trend toward empty calories, but let's also make our own decisions, without pressure from the politicians."

171. "Thank you for addressing this very important issue!"

188. "...Thank you for doing this survey!"

207. "...Thank you for taking the time to have the conversation!!!"

9. 195. "Thrilled about the survey!!! Would love to see improved choices and fresher, healthier foods!!"

238. "The lady who communicates billing info over the phone is very helpful."

242. "Please try to provide fresh fruit, and keep high sugar drinks out. Otherwise we are very satisfied with the current lunch provided to our children"

255. "I think the lunches are fine. They are already expensive. For the amount of food the kids actually eat (whether its prepared that day, fresh, etc.) I don't want to pay more."

L. Become a part of the current food movements: farm-to-table, chefs involved in school lunches, expose kids to the foods of other cultures, educate kids about nutrition. (11 responses)

9.83. "Expand on variety of food to open kids' eyes to different cultures and tastes."

97. "I would be happy to talk to someone about ways to improve the lunch program. I have over 20 years in the food service industry which includes being an executive chef at several 4 and 5 star hotels. I also helped Penn State University with their food program for their students...."

102. "Make better use of local farms. It would be cool (on many levels) for our district/school community (the whole community; school and families alike) to be involved in a community garden/farm program which our lunch program could also benefit from. Teaching our kids the importance of the concept of "from farm to table", working together to build stronger community, as well as supporting local farms."

107. " My children have purchased the school lunch in the recent past and both of my kids do not like it. We eat healthy organic meals at home, and the quality at school is not great. The choices are redundant and boring to them. There are very few whole grains (only rice and wheat) and rarely include a vegetarian meal. Chicken is on the menu much too often! why not use a a program with creative meals and organic options. Our school should be a leader in nutrition for other schools, not following along with the un-educated majority about S.A.D. (standard American diet). Fresh vegetables, whole grains and vegetarian options should be the norm! And with the diversity at our schools why not include some diversity in the meals? I'm sure kids would appreciate a Japanese bento box, or an Indian meal, or even a chinese salad! I know my kids love to eat an ethnic variety of foods and love to explore new options. and with the beautiful garden at the school, why not utilize the garden and tell the kids..."these radishes are from our garden?" There is more then enough garden beds to provide food to be used on occasion. Especially if a fresh salad bar was ever an option. Here is a helpful link: <http://www.thelunchbox.org/> and here is an upcoming event.. Thursday, Feb. 18 10:30 a.m. to noon Whole Foods Market Hillcrest Healthy Meals, Healthy Kids Press Conference Chef Ann, local and state politicians, as well as representatives from SDUSD and Whole Foods Market will discuss ways to improve the current school lunch program and will launch a call to action campaign to ask Congress to increase the USDA lunch allocation via the Child Nutrition Act. Whole Foods Market will provide a Chef Ann-inspired "healthy school lunch" menu following the press conference. 145. "Join the school food revolution and do not serve food that you can find in gas stations like the food you are serving now :(PLEASE SERVE FOOD THAT IS PREPARED THE SAME DAY AND NOT MICROWAVED and please make the change before the 2010-2011 school year"

209. "...Could the District "partner" with a Chef or group to help to plan healthy offerings that taste good? Could there be classes where they learn about nutrition and make some items to eat for themselves?"

215. "Please incorporate more food and nutrition programming into the lunch program. Our nutrition week really opened my kids up to a wider range of foods. It seemed to help to hear from someone else that you should eat the rainbow and not eat everything out of a box!"

244. "Lunch should be part of the teaching curriculum. Color code the five food groups. Serve something from every group at every meal. Serve desserts separately at the end of the meal. Kids should learn that they can eat as much as they want, whenever they want, if they eat the right kinds of foods. I wish I had been taught that when I was younger. Kids should learn that the majority of packaged foods are not healthy, and they need to be proactive and take responsibility for what they eat."

258. "ongoing education, making it cool and important to eat healthy - getting the kids involved in picking the items etc."

M. Remarks on cost reduction(3 responses)

113. "cost reduction can be done by looking at the processes and eliminate non-value added and reduce waste and may help reduce cost while improving quality"

150. "Not directly related to Hot Lunch - can we stop the Wacky Wednesday $3 snacks ? The snacks should be $1 or lower. For example the .50 cents popcorn is fine. We pay $4.25 for lunch and then we have to pay $3 for a snack so we paid $7.25 x 2 kids for food!"

166. "high price lunch will cause less people to buy; then the % of overhead will be higher; then it will drive the lunch price even higher."

N. Ideas for reduction in the waste of disposable utensils. (3 responses)

128. "Since the current lunch packages required reheating, why can we not have large bin of organic spinach lasagna, spaghetti or organic mac and cheese reheated and serve the cafeteria way. This will help reduce the plastic wrapping."

157. "I'd like to see hot lunches that are dished out on the spot, almost family style. I'm bothered by the packaging and excessive trash currently generated. It would be ideal if kids could eat on real plates w/real utensils that are washed rather than thrown away. (after lunch, load up dirty dishes and haul away for cleaning.)"

192. "I think that the lack of a school lunch program that is supported by the children and parents is a disservice to the children, parents and the environment. I was truly shocked to learn of the state of school lunch in our district. Our kids at Del Mar Heights barely have a PLACE for lunch. Handing out lunches from card tables is not a school lunch program and it does not surprise me that my children are not interested in it. My idea would be to have a real cafeteria where children do not try to eat their lunch as quickly as possible to get out to the playground. Right now they EAT on the playground essentially."

246. "I have never understood why the DMUSD has made a systematic choice not to have cafeterias. All other school districts in the immediate area have cafeterias with much better choices and lower costs."
