

On the back of the postcards, write the address of your elected official and your address, as well as a stamp.

 September 27, 2008 Dear Member of Congress, I am a constituent of yours who participated today in the ServiceNation Day of Action. As an American citizen, I believe in the importance and effectiveness of service in this country. With over 62 million Americans currently volunteering in some capacity, this generation serves more than any other generation in history, and we are ready to take on an expanded role of service. I urge you today to help implement of a new national service act that sets the goal of universal voluntary national service. Sincerely, Name (print): _____ Address: _____ City/State/Zip: _____ Phone: _____ E-mail: _____	 September 27, 2008 Dear Member of Congress, I am a constituent of yours who participated today in the ServiceNation Day of Action. As an American citizen, I believe in the importance and effectiveness of service in this country. With over 62 million Americans currently volunteering in some capacity, this generation serves more than any other generation in history, and we are ready to take on an expanded role of service. I urge you today to help implement of a new national service act that sets the goal of universal voluntary national service. Sincerely, Name (print): _____ Address: _____ City/State/Zip: _____ Phone: _____ E-mail: _____
 September 27, 2008 Dear Member of Congress, I am a constituent of yours who participated today in the ServiceNation Day of Action. As an American citizen, I believe in the importance and effectiveness of service in this country. With over 62 million Americans currently volunteering in some capacity, this generation serves more than any other generation in history, and we are ready to take on an expanded role of service. I urge you today to help implement of a new national service act that sets the goal of universal, voluntary service. Sincerely, Name (print): _____ Address: _____ City/State/Zip: _____ Phone: _____ E-mail: _____	 September 27, 2008 Dear Member of Congress, I am a constituent of yours who participated today in the ServiceNation Day of Action. As an American citizen, I believe in the importance and effectiveness of service in this country. With over 62 million Americans currently volunteering in some capacity, this generation serves more than any other generation in history, and we are ready to take on an expanded role of service. I urge you today to help implement of a new national service act that sets the goal of universal, voluntary service. Sincerely, Name (print): _____ Address: _____ City/State/Zip: _____ Phone: _____ E-mail: _____