Over 40 percent of all children rely on Medicaid. The Graham-Cassidy bill includes hundreds of billions in cuts to Medicaid – kids alone would face more than $40 billion in reductions.

The Senate must protect Medicaid: no child should ever lose their health care.