

1993
First test results published
Frontal offset test (60km/h) introduced

1999
Minimum scores for frontal offset & side impact tests
Pedestrian protection test introduced
Star ratings introduced
MoU with Euro NCAP

2003
Minimum scores for head protection in pole test introduced

2011
Annual increases commence for all star rating levels

2015 - 2017
Transition period: ANCAP & Euro NCAP rating data in use

ANCAP
Ratings based on ANCAP protocols and policies

Euro NCAP
Test data from Euro NCAP used to derive additional ratings for Australasian market.

ANCAP
Ratings based on ANCAP protocols and policies

OR

Euro NCAP
Ratings based on Euro NCAP protocols and policies

ANCAP
Ratings based on common test protocols and policies for Australasia & Europe

1992
ANCAP founded

1995
Frontal offset test speed increased to 64km/h

2000
Pole test introduced

2008
ESC mandatory for 5 stars

2012
Whiplash test introduced

2018
Adoption of common protocols & policies with Euro NCAP

- Introduction of oblique pole test
- Re-introduction of full width test
- Side impact test updated
- New dummies introduced
- Performance testing of autonomous collision avoidance technologies introduced
- Child occupant protection assessed