

Georgia sportsmen & women

1,059,000 hunters & anglers spent $2.3 billion in 2011

SPORTSMEN BENEFIT THE STATE ECONOMY

1.06 million people (residents and non-residents) hunted or fished in Georgia in 2011, more than twice the population of the City of Atlanta (1.06 million vs. 420,000 population).

Georgia's resident sportsmen and women could fill every one of the state's professional sports venues (NFL, NBA, MLB and NASCAR) more than three and a half times (981,000 vs. 263,722).

Sportsmen and women spent $2.3 billion on hunting and fishing in Georgia in 2011, twice the revenues for cotton, the second highest grossing agricultural commodity in the state ($2.3 billion vs. $1.18 billion in cotton receipts).

Hunters and anglers support 39,640 jobs in Georgia - that is more than Fort Benning, the state's largest employer (39,640 vs. 32,000).

Spending by sportsmen and women in Georgia generated $216 million in state and local taxes in 2011, enough to support the average salaries of 5,432 police and sheriff's patrol officers.

Every single state makes a contribution.

Since 1989 the Congressional Sportsmen's Foundation (CSF) has maintained a singleness of purpose that has guided the organization to become the most respected and trusted sportsmen's organization in the political arena. CSF's mission is to work with Congress, governors, and state legislatures to protect and advance hunting, angling, recreational shooting, and trapping. The unique and collective force of the Congressional Sportsmen's Caucus (CSC), the Governors Sportsmen's Caucus (GSC) and the National Assembly of Sportsmen's Caucuses (NASC), working closely with CSF, and with the support of major hunting, recreational fishing and shooting, and trapping organizations, serves as an unprecedented network of pro-sportsmen legislators that advance the interests of America's hunters and anglers.
