

Wyoming sportsmen & women

390,000 hunters & anglers spent $778 million in 2011

SPORTSMEN BENEFIT THE STATE ECONOMY

390,000 people (resident and non-resident) hunted or fished in Wyoming in 2011 - that is more than four times the population of Cheyenne, the state's largest Metropolitan Statistical Area (390,000 vs 93,000).

Wyoming's resident sportsmen and women could fill the Wyoming Cowboys' home football stadium more than four times (145,000 vs. 33,500).

Sportsmen and women spent $778 million on hunting and fishing in Wyoming in 2011, more than twice the combined receipts for all crop products in the state that year ($778 million vs. $362 million).

Hunters and anglers supported 13,943 jobs in Wyoming in 2011 - that is five times more than the number of people employed by the University of Wyoming, the state's largest employer (13,943 vs. 2,800).

Sportsmen and women in Wyoming generated $53 million in state and local taxes in 2011 - that is enough to support the average salaries of more than 1,500 teachers.

Since 1989 the Congressional Sportsmen's Foundation (CSF) has maintained a singleness of purpose that has guided the organization to become the most respected and trusted sportsmen's organization in the political arena. CSF's mission is to work with Congress, governors, and state legislatures to protect and advance hunting, angling, recreational shooting, and trapping. The unique and collective force of the Congressional Sportsmen's Caucus (CSC), the Governors Sportsmen's Caucus (GSC) and the National Assembly of Sportsmen's Caucuses (NASC), working closely with CSF, and with the support of major hunting, recreational fishing and shooting, and trapping organizations, serves as an unprecedented network of pro-sportsmen legislators that advance the interests of America's hunters and anglers.
