

Homeless Resources in Pinellas County

Your first call should be to Pinellas 2-1-1. Just dial 211 on your phone and you can be connected with valuable resources. This phone number is a referral network, run by the County, of resources your family may need and a safe, reliable way to get help as quickly as possible.

Here are the primary agencies we refer people to in St. Pete and around our area:

St. Pete Free Clinic 863 3rd Ave. N. ph: (727) 821-1200

food pantry, transitional housing, womens shelter, medical assistance

Salvation Army 1400 4th St. S. ph: (727) 822-4954

serving individuals and families

St. Vincent de Paul 401 15th St. N. ph: (727) 825-0725

food & shelter

Suncoast Haven/Rescue Mission 5625 Park Blvd. ph: (727) 545-8282

meals, food pantry, outreach

YWCA Family Village 429 6th Ave. S. ph: (727) 823-2859

serving families & single parents with children

(The Homeless Emergency Project (HEP) in Clearwater is also a good resource if they are in Clearwater.)