

- Playdough - blue and green
- 2 Baking tray(s)
- 2 Baking pan(s)
- 2 Spatulas
- 2 Sets of measuring cups
- 2 Cookie molds
- 2 Rolling pins
- 2 Playdough knives
- Beans or pieces of paper
- Suggested recycled materials below:
- Cereal Boxes
- Paper towel tubes
- Empty cans
- Yogurt containers
- Plastic lids
- Milk jug tops
- Snack boxes
- 6 – 8 rolls of masking tape
- 3 Pair of children’s scissors
- 2 Tape dispensers with tape
- 4 Glue bottles
- 1 Bottle of Washable Silver Paint
- 1 Bottle of Washable Gold Paint
- 8 Paint brushes
- 4 Paint cups
- 8 Smocks
- 2 Tablecloths
- Book: “Robert the Recycling Robot” by Judith Russell
- Digital pictures of robots (such as ones from Star Wars)
- Large white construction paper circle – large enough to fill the page
- 4 to 5 Marbles
- Paint - blue, green, and white
- Big container - should fit the piece of construction paper
- 3 to 4 Scissors
- Pencil
- Blocks
- 20 Pictures of real-life structures
- 4 Clear plastic jars with a lid
- 1 Pitcher of water
- 1 Small Pitcher
- 1 Small bottle of clear dish soap (blue or clear)
- 1 Small bottle of vinegar
- Blue food coloring
- 1 Teaspoon
- 1 Funnel
- 5 Smocks

- Video: “The Earth Book”
- Video: “The Lorax”
- Video: “Earth Song”
- Chart Paper
- Marker

- Sidewalk chalk
- Sandbox area
- Sandbox toys
- Toy rakes
- Playground map
- Playground rules
- Playground equipment

- Book: “I Am Earth,” by James McDonald
- Book: “Seeds Move!” by Robin Page
- Book: “When Grandma Gives You a Lemon Tree,” by Jamie L.B. Deenihan and Lorraine Rocha
- Book: “I Can Save the Earth!” by Alison Inches
- Book: “The Earth Book,” by Todd Parr
- 1 Basket of large crayons
- 1 Basket of markers
- 1 Basket of jumbo colored pencils
- 1 Piece of recycled paper (used on one side and no longer needed)
- 1 Three-Hole Punch
- 1 Roll of yarn, string, or ribbon

- Pack of white sentence strips
- Highlighter
- 26 Tree cutouts
- 15 Sun cutouts