CHECKLIST OF REQUIRED MATERIALS

THE FOLLOWING MATERIALS ARE REQUIRED AND MUST BE INCLUDED IN YOUR ONLINE APPLICATION:

Section 1: Team Members and Project Information

- General project details including title of project, one line summary, genre, and budget dollar amount.
- Contact details for project's primary contact.
- Details for all other applicants attached to project.
- CVs for writer, director, and producer (as applicable). More comprehensive than a resume. Your CV should include summaries of relevant duties performed in jobs listed. Keep it relevant, no more than 2-3 pages (uploaded for each individual applicant in appropriate field).
- Filmographies for writer, director, and producer (as applicable) outlining experiences in the film industry. All production and post-production experience is valid. Only produced films or videos may be listed as credits (uploaded for each individual applicant in appropriate field).
- Entire team's visual support links uploaded as one document. Include visual support material that showcases the directorial/producer/writer talents. While welcomed, trailers and demo reels cannot be submitted as visual support material unless they are accompanied by the full piece(s) chosen to represent the craft on hand.
- Each visual piece submitted must be accompanied by a paragraph synopsis. The synopsis must include running times for each piece. Please feel free to note any special circumstances of your pieces, whether it be time constraints, financial limitations etc.
- Visual support should be submitted as links (Vimeo etc.) as .mov or .mp4 files (H.264 in Quicktime). If that is not possible, data files can be sent electronically to features@cfccreates.com or mailed to CFC Features on a data disc or through file transfer websites Dropbox, YouSendIt, or WeTransfer. Clearly indicate the title of film/year of production/applicant name in the file name of all visual support submitted.

- Director must have at least 10 minutes of narrative drama to submit (not including music videos or commercials). Producer should have a producer credit on either short film(s), feature film(s), or TV (credits may include documentary film/TV). *A data disc is a storage medium that holds digitized files. Please ensure that you DO NOT submit DVD .vob files.

Section 2: Screenplay, Copyright

- Title of original work and format (ie. novel, play etc.) (if applicable), screenplay synopsis, an upload of the completed screenplay, an uploaded “blind copy” of the screenplay with title page and all references to the title removed.
- List of broadcasters, distributors, and sales agents who have been presented this screenplay, or any versions of the screenplay (if applicable).
- Copies of any documentation pertaining to interest or commitment from a broadcaster, distributor, or sales agent (if applicable; uploaded to the appropriate field).
- A brief description of the development history of the screenplay (uploaded to the appropriate field).

Section 3: Funding, Chain of Title, Budget and Timelines

- List of any development or other funding the project has received. Applicant must provide name of fund/grant, dollar amount(s), amount(s) received to date, amount(s) to be repaid.
- If the project has received any development or production funds/grants include any and all paperwork pertaining to such funds/grants.
- Copies of all other Production Financing commitments, if applicable (i.e. letter of agreement, deal memos, letter of intent and distribution agreements).
- Chain of Title: Please state any legal/contractual relationships and include a point form summary of the Chain of Title of the project, listing any and all agreements pertaining to the project (i.e. option agreement(s), purchase agreement(s), writer agreement(s), producer agreement(s), story editor agreement(s), incorporation documents and any other relevant documents) and list the entities and or individuals involved. NOTE: If it is determined by CFC Features that additional documentation is required in order to evidence a clean Chain of Title, all costs to generate and complete such documentation will be borne by the creative teams applying (any applicable documents should be scanned and uploaded to appropriate fields; summary to be listed in point form in text box).

- Budget: An upload of your proposed schedule of financing that corresponds with the budget proposed. An upload of Budget Rationale outlining of why the applicant(s) feel the film can be made within the budget level being applied. NOTE: A full budget is NOT required at this stage.
- Timelines: Please let us know your proposed timelines for shooting, and if you have any confirmed or locked dates for shooting.

Section 4: Application Package Materials and Payment

- One page Development Plan from each member of the creative team outlining what would be required most in terms of further developing the project through CFC Features. Please discuss your ideals, hopes and areas to focus on that we can build upon (all team members are required to submit their expectations; please submit as one document uploaded to the appropriate field).
- A wish list of Mentors for each discipline (writer, director, producer) with whom you would like to work. For each name write a brief one paragraph description of why you feel he/she would be appropriate. Please provide at least five names per discipline, with a maximum of three being names of Canadian based individuals (all team members are required to submit a Mentor Wish List; please submit as one document uploaded to the appropriate field).
- A wish list of story editors with whom you would like to work. Please provide at least three names and a brief description as to why you would like to work with each person on the list. Story editors can be Canadian or International.
- Preliminary Marketing Distribution Strategy. The more research the better, but at a minimum identify: target audiences, comparison films, ideal markets, festival and strategies (uploaded to the appropriate field).
- Domestic distribution and foreign sales expectations. Please articulate what your expectations are regarding domestic and international territories (i.e. release patterns, appropriate territories and mediums internationally) (uploaded to the appropriate field).
- Writer/Director/Producer Notes: Please include any notes or information from key creative that you wish to disclose.

- Signed application signature page confirming that the principals and the project meet the requirements of the program and the budget level to which they are applying. The form must be signed by all applicants and scanned and uploaded to Online Application Form (application signature page can be found on page 7 of this document).
- Application fee payment, you will be directed to our PayPal portal after submitting your application. Applications will not be processed until we have received your payment.

Additional Required Materials

The following materials must be submitted for the application to be complete:

- One to two Letters of Reference (from a notable member of the film industry) for each member of the team applying. Each letter must be signed and emailed/faxed directly to CFC Features (features@cfccreates.com or 416-445-9481) from the person writing the letter.
- One copy of the original literary property (if applicable).
