

Global Problem Solving Fellows Program Application

Priority Application Deadline for Fall 2014 Program: August 25th
Submit completed applications to jkingj@gmu.edu

The Global Problem Solving Fellows Programs is open to all undergraduate students at George Mason University interested in a multi-disciplinary approach to understanding and resolving problems of global importance.

Eligibility Criteria:

- Completed a minimum of 45 credits (at least 15 at Mason)
- Have a minimum 3.0 cumulative G.P.A.
- Interest in a specific global problem

Program Requirements:

- Core Course: CONF 340
- Elective Course
- Study Abroad with Global Consortium Partner OR 2nd Elective Course

Application Information:

G Number:	Cumulative GPA:
Full Name:	Completed Credits:
Major:	Concentration (if applicable):
Minor(s):	Mobile Phone:
GMU E-mail:	Home Phone:
Other E-mail (optional):	Academic Advisor:

Proposed Curriculum

Core Course:	CONF 340
Elective #1:
Elective #2 or Study Abroad:

Required Application Materials

Please attach the following documents to this application:

- Letter of interest addressing global problem you wish to study and why you should be selected as a Fellow (300 - 500 words)
- Transcript - from Patriotweb

Questions? Please contact the Program Coordinator, Jason King at jkingj@gmu.edu or 703-993-9399