“Piety and Pleasure: Youth Negotiations of Leisure and Morality in South Beirut”

Guest Lecture by
Lara Deeb
Scripps College

Lara Deeb will discuss her recent book, co-authored with Mona Harb and titled, Leisurely Islam: Negotiating Geography and Morality in Shi'ite South Beirut. She will focus primarily on the ways in which young Shi'i Muslims who take their faith seriously negotiate ideas and practices related to leisure in South Beirut - specifically activities related to cafe-going, like listening to music or consuming alcohol.

Lara Deeb is Associate Professor and Chair of Anthropology at Scripps College. She is also the current president of the Middle East Section of the American Anthropological Association.
