

CSC

Cultural Studies Colloquium a forum for interdisciplinary research
George Mason University | Spring 2015

“Dead Addicts Don’t Recover”: ACT UP’s Needle Exchange and the Subjects of Queer Social Movement History

Christina Hanhardt

Associate Professor of American Studies
University of Maryland
at College Park

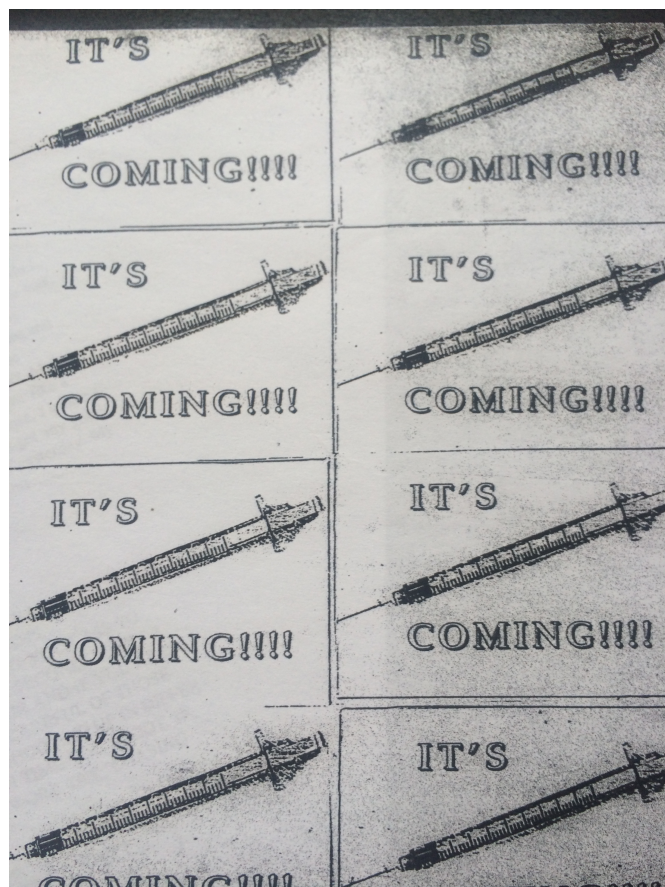

Image: ACT UP Records-NY, New York Public Library

Thursday, March 26, 4:30-6:30pm
Johnson Center, Meeting Room F

Co-sponsored by the Department of History and Art History

Christina B. Hanhardt is an associate professor in the Department of American Studies at the University of Maryland at College Park, and the author of Safe Space: Gay Neighborhood History and the Politics of Violence, winner of the 2014 Lambda Literary Award for Best Book in LGBT Studies. Her articles have also appeared in Radical History Review and Women and Performance.

CSC is presented by the Cultural Studies Program of George Mason University, bringing scholars of diverse methodological, theoretical, and topical expertise to share new and cutting-edge interdisciplinary research. We are grateful to University Life and the ICC for funding that helped make this possible. For questions or more information, please email colloquium coordinator Craig Willse, cwillse@gmu.edu, or contact the Cultural Studies office at 703-993-2851 | <http://culturalstudies.gmu.edu>.