

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT POLICIES FOR ENGL 798 INDEPENDENT STUDY

English 798, Independent Study for Graduate Students, is not meant to substitute for regular course offerings and should be used for a course of study that cannot be accommodated through them. Students may sign-up for one to three credits of independent study at a time.

To register for ENGL 798, students must 1) present this form outlining the work they propose to perform, 2) obtain the signature of the faculty member willing to supervise the course of study, and 3) obtain departmental permission from the English Department's Department Chair who will sign the Individualized Section form.

NAME: _____ G#: _____

SEMESTER: _____ Number of Credit Hours: _____

1. Title and Brief Description of Independent Study Proposal:

2. Indicate amount/type of written work to be undertaken for the Independent Study and attach a bibliography:

3. Do you plan to use this Independent Study to satisfy any of the specific area requirements for your track? (i.e. literature, writing, theory, etc). If so, explain which:

Supervising Faculty Signature

Date

Cc: Faculty Supervisor for Study
Student File