

Job Title: Promotion/Outreach Committee Team Member

Purpose of Job FBCBR's Children and Family Ministry is looking for members to join in their Promotion/Outreach Committee. Committee members will collaborate on the best ways to reach out into our community and bring people into the church. The team will be heavily used during our seasonal events.

Job Responsibilities:

1. Connect with other committee members once a month alongside the Family and Children's Minister to discuss upcoming events and promotional outreach opportunities.
2. Work within a given budget, or create new ideas that the church can do for little or no-cost.
3. Strategize on effective follow-up methods.
4. Work on special assignments and projects as needed and directed by the Children and Family Minister and/or Pastor

Qualifications, Skills, and Gifts

- A member of FBCBR, committed to vision, values, and beliefs of the church
- Committed Christian who is growing spiritually and is willing to model faith to others
- Desire to see children come to know and follow Jesus
- Team-oriented; able to work with a large team of volunteers
- Has a heart and passion for children
- Complies with a background check

Benefits to the Worker Satisfaction of knowing that you are contributing to the spiritual growth of children and families, by bringing the unchurched into FBCBR.

Time Required We ask for a yearly commitment to meet at least once a month. More meetings may be necessary as seasonal events approach.
