2015 SPIRITUAL LIFE CONFERENCE

A banner image for the "Walk Worthy" event. It features a sunset sky with clouds in shades of purple, orange, and blue. Below the sky is a long, straight road stretching into the distance, flanked by snow-covered fields and trees. The text "WALK WORTHY" is written in large, white, sans-serif capital letters across the top half of the image, and "WITH MARK JOHNSTON" is written in smaller, white, sans-serif capital letters below it.

MARK JOHNSTON
SPEAKER

Originally from Northern Ireland, Mark Johnston trained for the ministry in Westminster Seminary, Philadelphia before becoming a church planter with the Evangelical Presbyterian Church in Ireland.

After 10 years he was called to Grove Chapel in Camberwell, South London. After 16 years there he became the Senior Pastor of Proclamation Presbyterian Church (PCA) in Bryn Mawr, PA. In 2013 he and his family had to leave the US unexpectedly, but is now serving as the pastor of a small Presbyterian church in Cardiff, Wales. Mark serves on the Board of Banner of Truth Trust and has authored a number of books including three in the Banner Let's Study series, Our Creed (P&R) and Child of a King (Christian Focus). He writes a monthly column entitled Resident Aliens for placefortruth.org, a ministry of the Alliance of Confessing Evangelicals.

He is married to Fiona and has two grown up children. His interests include Fly Fishing, photography and Irish folk music.
