For the week of April 21, 2013

Scripture: Psalm 90:1 – 12, Ephesians 5:15 – 17 “Tired?”

Big Idea: We should learn to number our days and use our time wisely.

1. Describe one of the happiest seasons of your life. What was your schedule like during this season?
2. Do you think you are currently living inside or outside the margin? In other words, is your schedule too crammed?
3. Do you feel like time is flying by or moving slowly?
4. Describe a time when you numbered your days (graduation, retirement, kids leaving the home, wedding, etc.)?
5. Do you tend to live as if you have an endless amount of time? Why can it be difficult to number our days?
6. Is it possible that the driving force behind your busy schedule is your desire to gain someone else’s approval?
7. What do you need to eliminate from your schedule?
8. What do you need to add to your schedule?
9. What are you currently doing that needs to receive less attention?
10. What are you currently doing that needs to receive more attention?
