

Topspin LBO and Gotham Private Equity Partners acquire Two-Twenty Records Management, LLC

January 4, 2011

Topspin LBO, together with Gotham Private Equity Partners, L.P., today announced that they have acquired Two-Twenty Records Management, LLC (“Two-Twenty” or the “Company”). In conjunction with this investment, Two-Twenty has acquired two successful regional platform businesses, Storetrieve Inc. in Los Angeles, CA and Arizona Records Storage Centers in Phoenix, AZ. Two-Twenty is also actively pursuing several additional acquisition targets.

Two-Twenty offers outsourced storage, archiving, digital services, and electronic data vaulting, as well as transportation of multiple media types including documents, computer back-up tapes, and film and sound archives.

Two-Twenty was founded by Avishay Levanovsky, a seasoned veteran of the records management industry. Mr. Levanovsky will lead a senior management team that has longstanding relationships and experience in the industry. Mr. Levanovsky stated, “We are thrilled to have Topspin and Gotham as our equity partners. Their expertise in business services will be helpful as we look to grow the Company.”

Leigh Randall, Managing Director at Topspin LBO, said, “This is a great addition to our portfolio. We invested in Two-Twenty because the Company has significant growth opportunities and the right team to capitalize on it.”

Greg Prata, Vice President at Gotham Private Equity, said, “We have been following the RIM industry for years and we are excited to have the opportunity to partner with Topspin and an outstanding management team in building this platform.”
