

We're communicating a better future. Do you want to be part of it?

Life Size Media is...

...a dynamic, vibrant company that is continually growing and evolving to build on its successes and deliver on the respect and recognition that it commands within the industry.

...driven by a passion for the sector that shines in everything we do. We are committed to our clients and motivated by our ability to help them succeed in their vision of a better future.

...proud of it's strong network of contacts, clients and partners that will always be there to offer us help, advice and solutions because we have already offered the same to them.

...a place where people feel valued, where opinions are always welcomed and everyone has a unique contribution to make. It's a place where people learn and grow to be the best they possibly can be.

Life Sizers are...

...intrepid explorers, unafraid to take risks or make mistakes along their journey. They are inventive problem solvers turning obstacles into opportunities. They greet each new challenge as an opportunity to push the boundaries of conventional wisdom and their own experience.

...interested in more than just a job. They are committed and passionate about the sector and come to Life Size Media with a determination to help make the world a better place. They love learning and embrace the challenges and opportunities their work provides them.

The Life Size Media PR Manager is...

...a dedicated specialist who achieves a high volume of quality coverage across a wide range of sectors, publications and media.

...someone who keeps their finger firmly on the media's pulse, priding themselves on an excellent understanding of the media's focus within the sector and how this may shape public awareness and opinion.

...excited by exploring new mediums and innovative approaches in order to share the stories of our clients and their work with the widest and largest audience possible.
