

The Teddy Bears' Banquet

Ursinus Hotel is one of the world's few hotels just for bears. The tables in its banquet room are regular hexagons with room for one seat along each side. In other words, one table standing alone seats six bears.

To make more room for dancing at the Teddy Bears' wedding banquet, the staff arranges the tables in a long row along one side of the room. When they connect two tables together, here's how the seating looks:
