5 ON THE SPOT

BY MIKE BALDWIN

The Sooners were 2-5 away from Norman last season, losing three true road games and two neutral site games. But the previous season, OU was 5-0 in true road games. Listed below are some key figures for the Sooners' first road game this season.

CINCINNATI COACH BUTCH JONES

An upset win or even a close loss would give the new coach much-needed momentum. Growing pains were expected with a new staff and 11 new starters. But no one expected two ugly road losses after back-to-back BCS bowl appearances.

OU QUARTERBACK LANDRY JONES

The redshirt sophomore filled in well last season after Sam Bradford was injured but most of Jones' success was at home. Jones threw 10 interceptions away from Owen Field and had only eight touchdowns.

CINCINNATI OT SAMUEL GRIFFIN

The Bearcats have allowed a nation-worst 15 sacks. Griffin has the unenviable task of blocking Oklahoma defensive end Jeremy Beal, who has a shot at OU's career sacks record.

OU LINEBACKER TOM WORT

The redshirt freshman has played well but sometimes is out of position. Playing on the road for the first time, Wort faces a quarterback who runs zone read running plays and can air it out.

OKLAHOMA LT DONALD STEPHENSON

After being hampered last week in practice by a bruised tailbone, Stephenson played well in the second half to regain his starting job. Stephenson is the blindside protection for Landry Jones, who has looked rattled under pressure.
