Things to know

Hot read

Who's hot: Ryan Broyles, WR, Oklahoma

When the running game has sputtered, Broyles has been heavily relied on to turn short swing passes into solid gains. Against Kansas, he caught 11 passes for 121 yards.

In the crosshairs

Key matchup: Kansas State WR Brandon Banks vs. Oklahoma secondary

In its last two games, OU has held Texas receiver Jordan Shipley and Kansas receiver Dezmon Briscoe, two of the Big 12's best pass catchers, to a combined 82 yards receiving. The speedy Banks is the Wildcats' best chance to knock off the Sooners, and he'll need a big game if Kansas State wants to pull the upset.

Oklahoma's Ryan Broyles

Double coverage

Player to watch: Oklahoma K/P Tress Way

Way, a redshirt freshman punter, swiped placekicking duties from sophomore Jimmy Stevens before last week's game at Kansas, but didn't attempt a field goal. He was 5-of-5 on extra point attempts and could be tested for the first time against the Wildcats.

Clippings

Richard Durrett, ESPNDallas.com: "K-State has won two in a row and sits atop the Big 12 North standings, but do the Wildcats have another stunner in them? Not in Norman. After the loss to UT, I said the Sooners would run the table. I still think that, and the Wildcats aren't going to get in the way."
