Things to know

DOUBLE COVERAGE

Today's matchup to watch: Tulsa WRs Damaris Johnson and Slick Shelley vs. OU CBs Dom Franks and Brian Jackson

Franks and Jackson and the rest of the Sooner secondary will be charged with slowing down the Golden Hurricane's top-two playmakers, who together are averaging almost 150 yards receiving a game.

MAN IN MOTION

Player to watch: Cameron Kenney, OU wide receiver

The Sooners are searching for a No. 2 option to complement slot receiver Ryan Broyles in the passing game. Kenney got the starting nod over Adron Tennell last weekend, but he'll need to produce against Tulsa to keep it.

IN THE CROSSHAIRS

Who will be tested: OU kickoff coverage team

So far, the Sooners rank No. 15 nationally in kickoff coverage, but have yet to be really tested. Today they will by Damaris Johnson, who is one of the better returners in the country.

HOT READ

Who is hot: OU quarterback Landry Jones

The redshirt freshman threw for three touchdowns against Idaho State in a solid starting debut. But today, the competition will be much tougher as Jones will be going up against an underrated Tulsa defense that excels at pressuring the quarterback.
