

MAKE A SPLASH! READ!

Kids and parents: The Oklahoman's Summer Reading Contest, in conjunction with the Oklahoma Department of Libraries' statewide program, encourages children ages 5-12 to read during the summer! Don't miss this chance to read and win great prizes!

CONTEST
BEGINS
JUNE 6

Activities that involve reading different sections of The Oklahoman or NewsOK.com will be published every Sunday in The Oklahoman's Life section and at nie.newsok.com beginning June 6. The activities also will be available at all public libraries. Children can send in their answers to the activities each week to enter the contest.

Eight weekly winners will receive sets of books, and one name will be drawn for a grand prize. The grand prize winner from all entries will win the opportunity to throw out the honorary first pitch at the RedHawks August 2 Library Night at the Ballpark game, plus a digital camera! In addition, everyone who submits answers to the activity questions for all eight weeks will receive a surprise reward! And it keeps getting better! $450 worth of children's books will be provided to the winner's nearest library serving the public.

DIVE RIGHT INTO THE 2010 SUMMER READING CONTEST!

Oklahoma
Department
Libraries

INSTITUTE of
Museum and Library
SERVICES

NEWSPAPERS IN EDUCATION
THE OKLAHOMAN

THE OKLAHOMAN

SONIC
America's Drive-In

