

A PLACE FOR YOU & ME

LEARNING AND LIVING TOGETHER AS A COMMUNITY

True/False

LESSON 2

Remember, every person has a disability; some disabilities are just easier to see than others. All people look, act, and think differently than one another and that is what makes us each unique and special. With the knowledge you have gained from this Newspapers In Education program, answer the following questions about people with disabilities.

Answer the following questions by circling “Yes” or “No”:

1. Can people who use a wheelchair have jobs? Y or N
2. Are people with disabilities sick? Y or N
3. Is there any way that people who can't speak can communicate? Y or N
4. Is it ok to be friends with someone who looks or moves differently? Y or N
5. When people don't speak clearly, does that mean they aren't smart? Y or N
6. Can people with disabilities become famous? Y or N
7. Can people who use a wheelchair or walker drive cars? Y or N
8. Should you feel sorry for someone because they have a disability? Y or N
9. Should children with disabilities come to school and be friends and classmates? Y or N
10. Do people have disabilities because they have done something bad? Y or N

Question:

Save your answers to this lesson. Ask someone who is not in your class (friend, parent, brother or sister) the same questions. Did they answer each question the same as you? What was different? Be sure to teach them what you have learned in the program if you know their response is not correct.

Answers: 1-Y, 2-N, 3-Y, 4-Y, 5-N, 6-Y, 7-Y, 8-N, 9-Y, 10-N

NEWSPAPERS IN EDUCATION
THE OKLAHOMAN

Newspapers for this educational program provided by:

This lesson is part of the “A Place for You and Me” program. This program is complimentary for teachers statewide. For more information, contact Jamie Jenkins at jjenkins@opubco.com.

*Questions adapted by Inglis Foundation resources; further explanation found in the online Teacher's Guide.