

Are You CALLED2CHANGE?

DID YOU KNOW...

At 9:02am on April 19, 1995, in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma...

- 168 people were killed, including 19 children
- 219 children lost at least one parent
- 30 children were orphaned
- Over 300 buildings were damaged or destroyed
- 12,384 volunteers and rescue workers participated in rescue, recovery, and support
- More than a third of Oklahoma City's population knew someone killed or injured in the bombing

...all because of a senseless act of violence and home-grown terrorism?

Be a part of the solution to make this world a better place. Learn the facts about the Oklahoma City bombing and experience the remarkable story of triumph over tragedy by visiting the Oklahoma City National Memorial & Museum.

Experience a Field Trip at the Oklahoma City National Memorial & Museum

A visit to the Oklahoma City National Memorial & Museum changes lives. School groups can learn about the impact of violence, the senselessness of choosing violence to solve problems, the importance of personal responsibility, and the value of hope by taking a field trip to the Memorial and Museum.

Thanks to the generous support of Chesapeake Energy Corporation, Devon Energy Corporation, Inasmuch Foundation and the Memorial's Pay It Forward program, grants are available to assist with Museum admission for student groups. # Oklahoma City Memorial Kids Marathon

Calling all kids through 6th grade: sign up for the Oklahoma City Memorial Kids Marathon!

Run to remember...

...those 168 people who were killed in the bombing of the Alfred P. Murrah Federal Building in downtown Oklahoma City on April 19, 1995.

...to make good choices for health and happiness.

...to treat yourself and others with respect.

- Keep track of each mile you run in preparation for the final 1.2 miles on May 1, 2011. A special Runner's Log is available for you to download when you register at okcmarathon.com.
- Get ready by logging 25 miles on your Runner's Log and have your teacher or your parents sign the log for each mile you run. Remember to redeem your free coupon from Carl's Jr. and 7-Eleven after each 5 miles you complete!
- On race day, Sunday, May 1, 2011, you will run the final 1.2 miles on a special course through downtown Oklahoma City. When you cross the Finish Line, you will receive a special Kids Marathon Finisher's Medal!
