Bryant Funeral Home is committed to maintaining a safe and healthy environment for our valued staff and for the families that we serve. Our commitment to serve the community remains strong amid current concerns over the spread of the coronavirus (COVID-19). We are closely following the guidance and recommendations from the Center for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) as well as state and local authorities.

We would like to share some of the actions we are taking to help protect you and all the families we serve, as well as our staff.

- We have enhanced our general cleaning protocols for our facility. The building is disinfected daily and between services to ensure continued cleanliness and safety.
- We are strictly enforcing our policy of insisting that staff who are under the weather (flu like symptoms, fever, cough and/or breathing problems) remain at home.

Please be assured we are always available 24 hours a day to help you and your family in your time of need and we are open for funeral services.

Funeral arrangements can be made in person at the funeral home, by phone, or in your own home if that makes you more comfortable, as we guide you through this trying time.

We will continue to closely monitor the situation and will take the necessary actions to help keep our community safe, while we provide the services you may require. We value the trust that you place in us, and all members of our staff are available to speak with you at any time, should you have any questions.

Our thoughts are with you and all the families we serve.

Regards,

Sergio Benites, Manager
