Local CTTT Groups

"Lighting the light for healing our nation"

On July 22, ten CTTT members from metropolitan New York City and Boston gathered in the Manhattan home of Sylvia and Byron Lewis to break bread together at the table of sister- and brotherhood and share their stories with one another. This was the third meeting of the Northeastern CTTT group, and clearly it won't be their last. One look at the photo above reveals the warmth and healing connection present among them.

Coming to the Table will be featured prominently in the upcoming book Gather at the Table, written by CTTT members Tom DeWolf and Sharon Morgan, and due to be released in October by Beacon Press. Authors Morgan and DeWolf used the CTTT model of healing to build an honest interracial friendship over three years and across thousands of miles and twenty-seven states.

CTTT will be collaborating with Tom and Sharon on their book tour, including offering a Book Tour "Idea Kit." The kit is comprised of seven ideas, ranging from simply reading the book and talking to others about it, to attending a book reading, to organizing an event and planning follow-up.

To have the Idea Kit emailed to you when it's ready, click below and enter your name and email address.
