I will say that I am acting solely as a voluntary agent in the matter. Not personally situated so as to give it much pecuniary years have given the matter much thought and have had frequent conversations with Hon. W. B. Ayden of whom you probably have some knowledge (formerly Pres of

Friend Cornell

Here is a statement of the business transactions between you and me in regard to the Bonds of the Utica, Ithaca and Elmira Railroad:

March 14, 1873. I held your note for $2000, on which there was due interest ~~from~~ at 7 percent per annum from April 21, 1872. to March 14, 1873 - 328 days in all, which was $125.80.

Dated March 14, 1873 ————— 10.761.13

I paid you March 14, 1874 — $12.886.93

On that date I bought of you fourteen \$1000 Bonds of the Utica, Ithaca and Elmira Railroad for \$900.00 each, which amounted to \$12,600.00. On these Bonds there was due interest from January 1st 1873 to March 14, 1873 - 73 days - at the rate of 7 per cent gold which amounted to \$196.00 gold. Gold on March 14, 1873, the day of the transaction was $14\frac{3}{4}$ premium, which made the interest due, in currency \$224.91

This balance due me was the result of my examining your figures - you having made a mistake. I called your attention to it and you revised your figures and repeated that you had discovered that you had made a mistake of $52.18 which you paid to Mr Lord on account of my subscription to the Atchafalpa Iron Co. on August 11th 1873.

The following proposition was submitted:

Ithaca, July 11, 1874

To the Directors of the Utica, Ithaca & Elmira R. R. Co.

Gentlemen:

It appears by the report made and accepted by your Board, Feb 16th 1874. that the sum of $65,919.05 had been advanced by me for the construction of our road. This sum, July 1, 1874. amounts with interest (from April 1, 1872) to $77,062.16—

Upon this sum no payments have been made, but I hold $30,000 first Mortgage Bonds of the Company as security, and the obligations of the Company and the present Contractor that these advances should be paid by him; the Company delivering him therefor our first Mortgage Bonds at 80 cents.

In view of the present condition of our affairs, I will propose to the Company the following settlement for advances: I will accept the first Mortgage Bonds of the Company in payment at the rate of 80 cents, the Bonds to be delivered at once by the Treasurer with the Coupons cut off to the date of July 1, 1874 and the $30,000 bonds held by me shall be credited to the Company as payment at this rate, and I will return the Coupons to July 1, 1874 on the same.

Hon. Ezra Cornell

Dear Sir - With 10 morning of your improved breast I wish simply to call your attention to matters of which you are directly interested in, that may not have come to your notice, & should have much earlier in the season -

Nothing so striking in the slightest has been done by your company that would have been done on other Roads to give permanence to a place that merits so much as ours. Your illustrated time card casually mentions our Falls & in so slight a way that visitors are made to laugh with the brief mention made of our Scenery as compared with Otisco gorge &c. of which your Vice President is directly interested in & also the competing line to your Road by way of the Cayuga Route.

Consequently he could not reasonably ignore his pecuniary interests in looking after yours, which he openly proclaims that his interest in your Road has ceased & only acts from an urgent wish on the part of persons directly interested in the Road. Mr Dillet understands clearly that your present desire for action to the Falls is far from being favorable to your Road, & the consequent result tends to direct travel by the Lake, as the present arrangement leaves you little choice whereas comes the carrying of 70 tons to ^{made} ~~land~~ going & returning, by location of depot, making the work not more than five minutes, showing liberal intention on part of your company & very much work little cost & time would be accomplished. Could you listen to the constant complaining of traders & particularly from your own town I am sure something would be done as the longer this inconvenience of carrying continues to be corrected, the more detriment as you are knowing, the road must suffer. If my complaining was like many petty farmers asking for absurd things the case must be quite different. Have tried to be brief & avoid annoying you at this time, but feeling that the remedy for my trouble in the hands of one of your judgment must come true I am

Yours Respectfully

Hon. Ezra Cornell

My dear Sir.

At the time of the death of Mr E.
W. Chester he was conducting or rather defending a suit for your benefit by Mr F. O. J.
Smith involving a large amount

I was furious at his death that suit had been decided by the Referee adversely to you.
and as he considered to him, before the final result of that

Suit was depending I believe to him great expectations. He was greatly interested in it and from its final successful termination (in which he had great faith) he was hoping to gain largely and in a measure retrieve his then adverse fortunes. Upon that one thing he founded much hope, and his desire was to live to see the end of it, for he was embarrassed financially. He was looked ~~for~~ decision by the Referee of that Suit had as I believe a most unfavorable influence upon his ~~life~~ ^{life} and I fear very much helped

To shorten his days.

As I am informed, in the event of final Success in that Suit he was to have for his services, your interest in a certain Suit then & now pending against the Erie Railway Co in favor of some Telegraph Company, or your interest in that Company.

I believe independent of your interest he had also an individual interest in this latter Suit.

Now Mr Chester
left his daughter Mrs Battell penniless, except as she is a creditor of his estate, from which she may receive a few hundred dollars at the best.

Mrs Battells condition is deplorable & what she is to do I know not.

Of course it is my desire to help her if I can, and it is in view of that, that I now write to you. I know that Mr C. in his life time looked upon you as a good friend of his, and as I believe a liberal one.

The suit of Smith vs yourself I suppose you desire some counsel of your own selection to conduct for you and would be unwilling to have Mr Chesters representatives to carry it on to completion under your arrangement with Mr Chesters. But under the Circumstances what would you be willing that I should do with the Suit agt the Erie Co. So far as your interests in & to grow out of it are concerned, for the sake & benefit of Mrs Battell?

Can you not under all the circumstances and in a spirit of liberality for which you are noted, make some generous offer under which Mrs Battell may through that suit be benefitted. If so I will go on with the suit and endeavor to hasten a termination or settlement of it. I believe I could do this ¹⁸⁹² successfully. Mrs Battell had let Mr Chester in his extremities have her all about $8000. and he died owing her this.

I suppose you remember me, or who I am.

I am Mrs Chesters Son in law - a lawyer, my office having been at 35 Wall St where you have seen me.

I am now a Police Justice in the City but could still attend to this Suit. I am now at this place for a months vacation, visiting Mrs Chester and my children.

My address in the City is Yorkville Police Court 5-7 St. N. York City, but I should like to hear from you here.

very truly yours
Thos D. Sherwood
