Expect not praise without envy until you are dead.

The path of duty is always the path of safety.

A friend without faults will never be found.

Be slow to take when strangers haste to give.

Cherish sentiments of charity toward all men.

Bad as the world is, respect is paid to virtue.

We must stand or fall by our own actions.

Never forget a kindness.

Good men will forgive those who injure them.

Merit will surely meet with a reward.

True courage, well directed, can not be overpraised.

Some men are fortune's favorites.

Ignorance is always pleased with itself.

Idleness is the sepulchre of a living man.

They live ill who always think of living.

He that lives on hope has a slender diet.

He that will not be counseled can not be helped.

Hog Island - Pet Noddle's isl and Chelsea 2= miles from Town & Wolf Town & 1687 "The Lightning awfully shatters a tree there." Thomas Cornish sold it (or 3a. of it) in 1639 to Edward Tyng -

Aug 21. 1724 The men of war Shoreham, Capt James Cornwall arrived in port - She was the "Station ship" - How long Capt Cornwall continued here is not known. He was afterwards actively employed in various expeditions until 1743 - when he was killed on board his ship the Marlborough, of 100 guns, while gallantly engaging the Spanish admiral Matthews in the bloody engagement with the Spanish and French fleets off Toulon -

† A costly monument was erected to his memory in Westminster Abbey, the inscription on which, among other things details that he was the "Third son of Henry Courtenay of Bradworthy Castle in the County of Wexford, Esq. He was descended from the very Old and Illustrious Stocks of the Plantagenets"
