Goering interrogated extensively on basis of Hoszbach notes (L 12). He is not asked to "authenticate" any document, but is asked whether he recalls hearing Hitler say the various things contained in the notes. (pp. 1 - 37) Goering admits that in 1937 Hitler said, "Exactly what he had been saying before - that he felt the Lebensraum was insufficient and should be extended towards the East." (1) In 1937 Hitler intended to exercise military pressure on Czechoslovakia. (2) It was always Hitler's thought to expand towards the East. (9)
