REICH MINISTRY OF TRANSPORT, REICHSBAHN DIVISION

(This report is being published in answer to Special Questionnaire provided by US Group CC, G-2, T-Section, 6th Army Group, 14 May 1945)

I. SOURCES

- i) DILLI, Gustav, Director of Ministry of Railways and Chief of Railway Transportation of the entire REICH. He has been connected with the German Railways since 1918. Joined the Nazi Party in 1936, but never held office in it. DILLI is extremely competent, well-informed and cooperative.
- ii) SCHLEGEL, Theodor, OBERREICHSBAHN-RAT (Senior Gov't Councillor for Railways) and assistant to DILLI. Has had 13 years' experience in Railway Service. Speaks fluent English.
- iii) PETERS, Albert, MINISTERIALDIREKTOR (Ministerial Director) and Chief of Electrical Service of entire REICHSBAHN.
- iv) EWALD, Richard, AMTSRAT (Dept Councillor) and assistant to PETERS.

All four men are Railway experts, are very cooperative, and are anxious to help in the reconstruction of the German Railway System. All of them claim that they had to join the Nazi Party in order to hold their Civil Service jobs. The personnel listed below are all experts in their respective fields, and, except where noted, they had only lukewarm Party connections.
