Subject: Imprisonment of persons in connection with the anti-jewish demonstrations.

Through reports from the commanders of the SS Death head Regiments and concentration camps, we were informed that among the numerous persons seized during the last anti-jewish actions, many were sent to concentration camps without proper personal identification or proper report by the agency that turned them in. The camp authorities state, that the individuals refuse to state their names and origin, or are unable to do so. (partly "imbeciles"). If arrested persons were sent to concentration camps from your department, without you having enclosed the exact data and reports, with the transport (or have sent them to the camps), I request, that this will be done at once, so as to assure the collection of personal data on each arrested individual. Should there still be arrestees which refuse to, or are unable to give personal data (In cases where the papers were not sent along by the agency that
