Pam Bailey

Executive Director

P: (801) 486-0600

E: PamB1@NACVA.com

Pam Bailey has been with NACVA® and the CTI® since 1995. She has over 33 years' experience providing professional support to leading organizations specializing in consulting, education and software services, and over 48 years' experience in customer service. Her extensive background came from the airline industry of Western/Delta Air Lines, which took an interesting turn into the financial consulting realm of a Big Eight firm PriceWaterhouse, followed by several years of software management implementation providing the tools that have developed her into the Executive Director she is today. Pam is Parnell Black's right hand, NACVA's CEO, responsible for maintaining executive communications, overseeing 25 employees, and ensuring Headquarter operations run smoothly. She is a member of the Executive Advisory Board and an Advisor to the Ethics Oversight Board. Pam serves as the Executive Director to NACVA's State Chapter Foundation providing support to 40 Chapter Presidents helping them build relationships with local members, offering Continuing Professional Education (CPE) at local events, and establishing networking opportunities with State CPA Societies, Bar Associations, and other local organizations. Pam also oversees the NACVA CPE sponsorship with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy and state regulatory agencies. She also assists in documenting/maintaining the credentialing process for NACVA's own CVA credential that must comply with its NCCA® accreditation standards of the Institute of Credentialing Excellence™. She initiates annual Board elections to ensure all members get involved with the Association. Her role is to lead, advise, and support the members and staff at NACVA/CTI so that everyone reaches his or her full potential providing the tools necessary to accomplish their personal and professional goals while promoting goodwill within the organization. She is not only driven and goal-oriented, but passionate about everything she does. Pam attended the University of Hawaii and Kapiolani Community College of Business. She was awarded "Woman of the Year" by the National Association of Professional Women and is involved with her local Community Emergency Response Team (CERT). Pam also participates in Salt Lake City's Annual Fire Department—Operation Cover Up; where she donates her time and hundreds of blankets to support the Road Home, Utah's Division of Aging and Adult Services, Shriners Hospital for Children, The Christmas Box House, and St. Vincent de Paul's Catholic Church.
