

Goals of the Canadian Youth Assembly (CYA/AJC)

- To outreach to uninvolved youth and provide opportunities for their involvement within the CYA/AJC;
- To incorporate all youth and represent their collective opinions to the people of Canada through making public statements, running polls and other statistical and representative measures;
- To bring awareness to the challenges facing youth on a national scale in order to achieve better representation for young people throughout Canada;
- To train youth to be effective in acquiring and fulfilling roles in the public sector and the CYA through conferences, workshops and any other means available
- To provide youth with leadership positions in which they shall gain experience, training, build networks and positive relationships
