

Mission Statement for the Canadian Youth Assembly (CYA)

To represent the collective views of the youth of Canada to the people of Canada through cultivating interest and activity in the public sector by providing innovative training, leadership opportunities, and an inclusive and efficient means of discussing and debating the issues that affect them.