INT. COUNSELING OFFICE - DAY

Gwen has been caught using in rehab. still a little under the influence.

GWEN

So what's the deal? I'm out?

COUNSELOR

Well, it'll take me a day or so to arrange a transfer. I have to make some calls.

GWEN

Well, I know where I want to go, there's a place in the city that has --

COUNSELOR

-- I'm not referring you to a treatment facility.

GWEN

I get to go home?

COUNSELOR

Nope.

GWEN

Well, where am I going then?

COUNSELOR

Your sentence was for 28 days of rehab - or jail time.

GWEN

Oh, well you don't really think I'm going to jail, do you?

COUNSELOR

No? For driving drunk, crashing into a house, running over a lawn jockey that could've been a 4 year old child?

GWEN

Yeah, but it wasn't. It was a 4 year old lawn jockey.

COUNSELOR

You know, it's fine that this is all a big joke to you, but in here we have rules.

COUNSELOR (CONT'D)

And I warned you about them. Have your bags packed by tomorrow morning.

GWEN

No, I'm not. Cause I don't belong in jail. I don't even belong in here. Yeah, i know I drink a lot. But that's because I'm a writer and that's what I do. I'm not like those people out there. I can control myself. I can, if I wanted to, I can - if I wanted. I can!

COUNSELOR

Really.

GWEN

Forget that! Mr. Rogers, you twelve-step geek. What do you know about me? You know nothing! You don't know anything about me!
