NORMAN

Ah you're here.

BRADLEY (GIRL)

I've been doing some...uh...I think I have about $30,000 of jewelry I can sell, $15,000 in cash. I broke into my mom's house.

NORMAN

That's where you were?

BRADLEY

All of this stuff was bought with my dad's drug money, so I think it's fair game.

(beat)

But we should leave soon. I bought us some supplies for the road - some clothes and some toothpaste.

NORMAN

Yeah, okay.

BRADLEY

Can you be ready to go tonight? Hm? you can sneak out after your mom's asleep.

(he doesn't move)

Norman, please. You said it yourself - that you're afraid of your mom - that you want to leave. You're legally an adult. You can do whatever you want. Please come with me.

NORMAN

(long beat)

I just don't know how I can leave her.

BRADLEY

Norman. We can do this. We have money now. We can do this.

He hears an approaching car - he sees who is driving.

NORMAN

It's her. I have to go.

BRADLEY

I'm leaving after dark. You know where to find me if you change your mind.
