

BOB
Hey! Where were you?

SUE
Out running some errands. Where were you?

BOB (lies)
In the office.
(at being out of breath)
I just ran up the stairs
because...I wanted to.

SUE
Can i talk to you for a minute?

They go and sit.

SUE (CONT'D)
I'm worries about you.

BOB
I know.

SUE
I mean, you know, the blackouts are getting worse.

BOB
Yeah, but we have it under control, okay? I don't go to school anymore. I don't drive. I'm really just mostly here.

SUE
I know, but I think that you need help...help that I cannot give you.

BOB
What sort of help? You don't mean like James?

SUE
No, that was - stupid. That was grasping at straws. I mean real doctors. I'm not always going to be in this world, Bob. Okay? You're going to out live me. And I want you to be safe. There are things we can do. There's therapy. There are medications. You know, we never really looked into it.

SUE (CONT'D)

It's something that I have been very scared to do
(breaks down)
But I am more scared not to. These places can help us. They'll help.

BOB

Places?

SUE

It's not like that. It's not what you're thinking. They're not horrible, these places - they are actually very pretty. They're very nice.

BOB

You've been to one?

SUE

That's where I went today.

Long, long beat.

BOB

I'm glad we had this talk of yours.
I see where we stand. You've given up on me.
