(Industrial Design and Human Factors)
Design Experience. June 2000

Working in the Xerox product design department I gained a valuable experience being within a busy design team, whilst within the team I successfully designed a series of logos.

employment history.

Part Time Waitress. 2004 - 2005.

The Red Lion Restaurant, Great Kingshill.

My experience as a waitress taught me skills such as maintaining focus and organisation under pressure as well as sole focus to customer satisfaction. My responsibilities involved; restaurant set up, cleanliness and customer service.

Part Time Receptionist. 2002 - 2003.

As a receptionist I was solely responsible for appointment organization, for three dentists and patient care throughout all shifts. This job role was essential to my confidence building.

profile.

Along with my enthusiastic personality, I am a passionate creative inspired by social and personal aspects of visual communication.
I seek to channel my education into work placements and experience within the design industry, and specifically to the future influence of design.

I have an enthusiastic interest in all design disciplines and how the interaction of media communication influences and affects both individuals and society. I love traveling and absorbing elements of other cultures to widen my understanding of others and communication.
