Tenants or Stewards?

Dear Parish Family,

In the sermon on October 5th, we considered the Parable of the Tenants in the Vineyard, and we asked the question of whether we live as tenants who use and use up the world around us or as stewards who recognize that the world is God's given over to our care.

Several years ago I spent time personally meditating on these topics. I did some rather anguished work looking at how I live in the world, as a tenant using and using up the things around me for my own and my family's benefit, or as a steward of the graces with which God has blessed me. To be honest, I didn't like what I saw. I made a covenant then to work toward both giving more of my time to God and tithing—giving 10% of my income back to God through the instruments of the Church and trusting that the Church will in turn be a faithful steward.

I've grown into it. That first year I committed 5% to the Church. The next year I committed 7.5%. Finally, I reached the 10% threshold. It has taken time, and it hasn't been easy from a worldly point of view, but the commitment has been liberating. At times when I have been faced with difficult financial decisions, there has been a great comfort knowing that this first 10% is God's portion come what may. All other decisions have taken on a new perspective. This rule of life has increased my trust in God and, I pray, my capacity to see God's vision for the world.

During this harvest season, as the first fruits of the earth are gathered together, we are invited to consider all the abundant blessings we enjoy and to offer thanksgiving to the God who graces us by committing his vineyard to our care. What thanksgiving means may vary for each of us, but Jesus' question is unavoidable: As we live in God's world, are we tenants, or are we stewards?

Grace and peace,

The Reverend Barkley Thompson,
Rector

October is Parish Stewardship Month

Stewardship Packets were mailed in early October. All month, we'll be hearing from parishioners about how important stewardship to St. John's is in their lives. Stewardship pledges fund our faithful programs and ministries each year. Parishioners are asked to return their completed pledge cards by Sunday October 26.

We Warmly Welcome to the St. John's Church Family:

Rebekkah Warburton, but friends call me Bekkah

Meet my family: No children yet, just a fiancé Jonathan Ferrell

Meet my pets: No pets either...

Things I love to do: I love being outdoors, especially hiking and camping in our beautiful Virginia, North Carolina mountains. I also really enjoy running (I am entering and hopefully finishing my first ½ marathon this November), doting on my sweet little nephews, watching Hokie football(!!!), and listening to good, live music with friends on a Saturday night.

What drew me to St. John's: Even though St. John's is a larger congregation, it still has a true sense of "family" that I adore. From the moment I walked in the doors, I felt at home, and I am very thankful for that.

What I'd like to get involved with at St. John's: I would love to spend time with the children and teens of St. John's and my fiancé and I are very interested in the monthly dinner clubs...food and friends: two of our favorite things!

Where I'm from: I grew up in Pulaski, Virginia...about an hour south of Roanoke

What I'm interested and involved in: I am a very active member of the Junior League, focusing my community involvement with the Carilion Hospital children's wing. I'm also involved with Roanoke's Young Professionals organization, Valley Forward, and sit on the board of Hunter's Hope, a philanthropic group that raises money and awareness for rare illnesses in children.

Five words that describe me: Tom, Jack, Daniel, Caroline, and Michael...these are my siblings and they have made me who I am today.

If the chosen title for a particular month interests you, we hope you'll read the book and join the conversation! The book club meets from 6:30-8:00 p.m. in the fourth floor conference room. Books can be purchased at Ram's Head Book Shop, owned by parishioners John and Lolly Rosemond.

Thursday, November 13, 6:30 p.m.

The Shack by William P. Young. This novel revolves around a father's loss when his young daughter is abducted. It asks questions about suffering, forgiveness, and the will of God. The Shack is getting a lot of buzz these days. It is thought-provoking and provocative.

Thursday, December 4, 6:30 p.m.

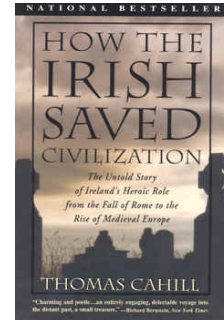

Peace Like a River by Leif Enger. The kind of story that used to be the material of ballads (according to Publisher's Weekly), this novel involves a journey, murder, a Christ-figure, and strange signs all around. "Everything is significant, everything has weight, and comprehension is fleeting." This national bestseller is sure to evoke great conversation.

Congratulations, KIMOYO!

The Diocesan Millennium Development Committee has awarded a grant of $1060 to Kimoyo's medical clinic in Northern Ghana. This money will support Kimoyo's efforts to bring much-needed medical services to the villagers of Zebilla, Ghana. Thank you, MDG Committee, for recognizing how a small organization can make a big difference in the fight against global poverty!

MILL MOUNTAIN THEATRE PRESENTS "A SIMPLE GIFT"

Ten year old Carrie O'Connor has lots of questions: Where does her mother, a New York children's writer, find ideas for her best-selling Michael Madigan series? Why does her father, a busy surgeon, sometimes spend more time curing people than caring for her? How would her life change if she landed a role in a play directed by a famous Broadway director? Carrie unwraps the answers in the adaptation of a Junior Library Guild selection called "a love song to the theatre... a love song to life." She unwraps the answers in Mill Mountain Theatre's holiday show for the whole family, "A Simple Gift."

This play is based on the book by St. John's own Nancy Patterson and has some of St. John's own youth acting in this play! We want to take a group of Youth, parents, and "young at heart" to see the play on December 13th.

The tickets are $16.00 and we do not want to place an order without knowing the exact amount!

Please email Lee Robison, lrobinson16@aol.com if you want to come with St. John's – this will be your commitment for the ticket!

Our neighbors, the members of the American Medical Students Assoc. of the Jefferson College for Health Sciences, will be co-sponsoring our Fall Blood Drive.

An Angel Among Us (Behind the Scenes Welcoming Committee)

By Pat Lindsay

Every week for several years now a member of our Welcoming Committee has quietly and effectively sent a greeting notecard to those who enter our doors for the first time. Everyone sees the regular greeters and name tag workers but the average person is not aware of what follows after the services. Our own Sallie Spiller (who also is in the Choir) has regularly and diligently sent out notecards. We have received many thank-yous and positive replies from people saying that their experience was heartwarming, positive, and a joy to worship with us. Thank you Sallie for following through behind the scenes on behalf of our Welcoming Committee!

Trick or Treat! Give Us Something Good, Not Sweet!

Community Living Club members LOVED the Trunk or Treat we had for them two years ago and have asked for a repeat! We will give each of our 28 members a paper grocery bag for each of our 36 members, and we need your help to fill them.

We want to provide (1) three canned food items; (2) toiletry items such as toothpaste, floss, bar soap, and liquid soap; (3) household cleaning items such as sponges, toilet bowl cleaner, all-purpose cleaner, and laundry soap; (4) healthy snack food items (four per person) such as small boxes of raisins, small packages of pretzels, microwave popcorn, granola bars, and trail mix. We cannot use candy since so many of our members have diabetes or weight problems. We will also need 25 apples and caramels for candying (our concession to sweets)!

Items you wish to donate may be left in the church office October 20-22. If you would prefer, we could use a cash donation prior to October 20 to purchase items for you.

If you can help with a cash contribution or with items donated, please call Nancy Page (354-8415).

The Record

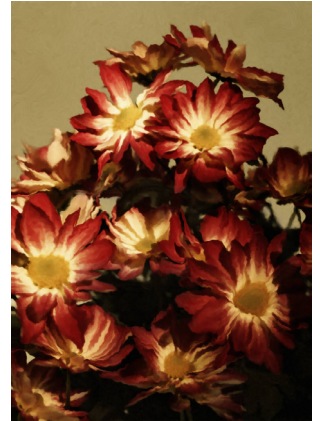

All Saints Sunday, November 2

Since the early centuries of the church, Christians have celebrated the Feast of All Saints, now commemorated on the first Sunday in November. Originally the designation "saint" applied to those who had died as holy martyrs for their faith. Today, we understand the Communion of Saints to include all Christians who have died, both those whose names are widely known and those whose names are known to God alone.

The liturgical color for All Saints is white to symbolize the purity and joy experienced by those who die in the Lord. On All Saints Sunday, the church will be adorned with white mums to honor those saints who have gone before us.

It's Time to Order Your All Saints Sunday Memorial Mums for the Altar!

If you wish to give an All Saints Sunday mum for a memorial, please complete the form below and mail it to the Parish Office to the attention of Lisa Cayse. Checks should be made payable to St. John's Episcopal Church in the amount of $15.00 for each mum. Memorial money collected above the cost of the mums will be given to a charity designated for women and children.

The mums on the altar are given to the glory of God and in Loving Memory Of (PLEASE PRINT OR TYPE)
