BUS PROCEDURES

BUS COUNSELORS: Camp Wrightwood requires there to be a bus counselor on board the bus to provide supervision and to facilitate procedure in case of an emergency. As campers arrive, the bus counselors and a camp supervisor will check the bus list for no shows and the driver will wait an additional 15 minutes for late arrivals. The bus counselors are responsible for the general safety and well-being of the campers. It is imperative that the campers listen to the bus counselors for general safety procedures and specific guidelines.

CAMPER RELEASE: On the Saturday return trip, campers will be released to their parents or responsible guardian.

Arriving early and on time means the bus can be on time to all stops

LATE PICK UP: If you think you will be late, please call the Camp Wrightwood office. If a family does not arrive on time, the camper will remain with the bus. Fifteen minutes after the designated drop-off time, the bus may leave with the camper aboard. The family may need to go to the next stop to pick up their camper. No camper will be left unattended. Please include your cell phone number in your registration information to facilitate contact.
